Simple Fun on the Marina

Children residing in the colonies off the Marina in the San Thome zone amuse themselves on the seashore. The sands of the beach south of the Light House, are not crowded with visitors and are the playing zones for these children on summer evenings.

Celebrating 200 years of the founding of campus that is now San Thome school: event on April 23

By Our Staff Reporter

The bicentennial celebrations of what went on to be the base for San Thome Higher Secondary School in San Thome is being celebrated on April 23 morning on the school campus. This is happening a year late, pushed back because of the pandemic conditions that existed the past two years.

File photo

On Saturday morning this weekend, the celebrations though will be low profile.

There is a special Holy Mass that will be celebrated by Rev. Dr George Antonysamy, the archbishop of Madras-Mylapore Catholic diocese. This will start at 9 a.m.

Then, at 11 a.m. there will be the bicentennial felicitation function. The special guest here will be Brother Johnson, who is provincial superior of the Yercaud province of the Montfort Brothers of saint Gabriel, the religious congregation which manages this and other schools.

Both events will take place at the indoor stadium on campus.

The celebration marks the first avatar of this institution, not of the San Thome school as it is today.

It was in 1821, that the local Catholic church and the diocese of Mylapore started a primary school to cater to the education of local area children, some of whom were Anglo Indians and orphans. English was the medium of education. Later, it became an Anglo and Vernacular school, with English and Tamil streams and later again, a high school with the status of 'college'.

But in 1906, when St Bede's school was founded, not far from this campus in San Thome, to cater to the growing number of Anglo-Indian students, San Thome school lost its 'college' status and was a high school.

The school continued to be in the hands of the diocese.

In 1954, the diocese handed over management of this school to the Montfort Brothers of St. Gabriel and it has been with this congregation since then. Currently, the Higher Secondary section has classes from Std.6 to Plus Two.

VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

Social histories rarely get recorded. If they do, they are done in passing.

Sometimes, they are woven by writers in their essays, long-forms, short stories and fiction.

These stories interest me. More, if they are on this city, a neighbourhood, even on a colony or on a street that has character. But they ask for our time and patience.

On one walk-around the popular church in Perambur which was celebrating its annual feast, I chanced on Bunder Garden Street and began chatting with the biryani seller at the street corner who claimed he lived in this zone all his life. Where were the gardens? And the bunders too?! The conversation attracted others; they shared their versions of local history. Not all the yarns are factual but you have to listen, to relate, to get to all the stories.

Recently, conversations with residents of Kallukaran Street in Mylapore led me on to one family which traces its roots to its profession that was practised in this colony. Sculpting.

There is hardly any trace of those roots now on this street but the man who belongs to a family whose forefathers created art from stone says that if somebody began to excavate a portion of this street corner, they may locate pieces of sculptures!

Social histories comes to mind as we remember the man of Madras who told all such stories all his life - extempore, at lectures and talks, in his books and columns and at social gatherings. S. Muthiah. He repeatedly asked people to jot down their family histories, record the life and times of your family member who led an extraordinary life . . . or of the institution you manage, even if it is 25 years old today.

Muthiah is regarded as the Madras historian. He liked to be known as a story-teller. There are story-tellers amongst all of us. And we must record our own stories. In print or in the digital space.

This summer, I have to keep a date in Royapuram. A date which has been delayed much, partly due to the pandemic.

A senior resident here, who is an excellent artist and makes some money being a stunt artiste will be my guide on the seaside of this part of the city. Not so long ago, a few populated colonies hug the shore and when the development of the port and its campus expanded, these colonies had to be abandoned, one by one. The sea swallowed them. And many residents moved westwards, into areas like Royapuram.

My friend excited me when he mentioned this some two years ago when we met at St. Peter's Church here, and promised to be my guide. Listening to social histories is one thing. But exploring the places that hold those stories is a deeper experience.

Once we are done with all the walking and talking in Royapuram, we will treat ourselves to samosas and mango ice-cream at the legendary Kunhiraman General Stores.

MTC bus: Mylapore to Central Station

● It is a good move by the government / MTC to introduce a mini bus to Central Railway Station from Mylapore. If this bus heads to Central via Egmore Railway Station, then many people will be benefitted since there is no direct bus service from Mylapore temple tank zone to Egmore Railway Station. Hope our local MLA acts on this request and on this need of Mylaporeans.

- N. Ramamurthy

● When there are so many frequent buses on the MTC route 1 series, why is this mini bus required?

A MTC bus service to Egmore is what is required now.

- Sridhar Venkataraman

● Bus M15 from Mylapore to Medavakkam was very helpful for people going to Velachery, Medavakkam/Tambaram. Would be better if M15 and a bus for Mandaveli to Egmore is initiated than this new bus service. Services on the '21' and '1' series already provide the connections.

- Sreenath Ganapathy

Duplicate mixies sold

A popular store in the heart of Mylapore (near Rasi store) has been selling duplicate mixies of the Sumeet brand. We purchase things at this store regularly and were shocked recently to find we had been cheated. We have brought this to the notice of the Sumeet company. How can such well-known shops sell duplicates? Action must be taken.

- Jayanthi

Plea for garbage bin

We, the residents of Sravishta Apartments

● MTC must be informed that the need of the hour is to have a direct bus service from Mandaveli to Egmore.

- Murali Krishnan

● When there are various modes of transport available for Mylaporeans why must MTC introduce this service to the railway station? Then, they say transport corporations are running in losses. There are so many areas not covered by any public transport. Reconsider again and look to serve other areas.

- L. N. Srinivasan

● There are no frequent MTC bus services to T.Nagar. Bus services from Mylapore to T.Nagar will be helpful.

- Janakiraman V.

on Sringeri Mutt Road, has been asking GCC to place a garbage bin outside our campus but their staff suggest that we place the bin inside our campus; but this can cause a rats menace here.

Our plea has not been addressed despite many phone calls, complaints and mails.

MY STORY

When Maharashtrians get together

By MEERA GOPAL RAO

'Maharashtra Nivas' on TTK Road, Alwarpet wore a festive look on April 17, a Sunday. Women and young girls were dressed in their finest finery and in bright sarees. The festival look was all around us. We were celebrating the auspicious 'Chaitra Gowri puja which is held annually in the month of April.

This year, the festival was very significant as this community, essentially Maharashtrians, was meeting after a long gap of two years caused by the Covid pandemic; so this time, this festival was celebrated with lots of fervour and joy.

Gowri's idol with ornaments and fresh flowers and offered a prasadam of laddoos and dry fruit kheer.

We hosted Nirmala Mohan who gave an enriching 'pravachanam' on the goddess. The women were honoured with kumkum, betel leaves, flowers and sprouted 'green gram'.

High tea followed - what is a celebration without good food! Guests were served rava khichdi, bonda, badam halwa and finally, hot filter coffee.

The community celebrates our main festivals

We Maharashtrians celebrate goddess Gowri as a daughter coming to her mother's house. We have an additional reason to make this occasion joyful as the goddess is believed to be in her first stage of motherhood. The women present that day decorated goddess like Gudi Padwa, Ganesh Chaturti and Sankranti besides the Gowri puja. These are occasions for families to get together. Over the years, there has been a lot of assimilation of other people into the community and this may be reflected even in the menu we plan at festival time!

But food is an integral part of us and our celebrations. It draws people and we get Maharashtrian cooks to cook for us at these events.

Our Association was primarily started as the Mahratta Education Fund in order to provide support to all those who are Marathi-speakers and who need financial support in school and college. Scholarships are granted and this happens annually.

As the cultural secretary here, I plan the religious and cultural events, making sure that our traditions are held on and reflected in all that we do here.

● Meera Gopal Rao is a retired senior teacher from Gill Adarsh school, Royapettah and resides in Mylapore.

Chithirai Pournami celebration

Tens of hundreds of people, mostly women took part in a procession early last Saturday morning (April 16) as part of the Chithirai Pournami celebration at Sri Mundagakanni Amman Temple in Mylapore.

The 1008 paal kudam (milk pots) event started at dawn at the temple, with women carrying small pots with milk joining the procession which went through a few streets around the temple zone and returned to the temple where abishekham was done to the goddess and prasadam was shared.

This is a regular traditional ritual that is held at this temple and on this weekend morning, this zone of Mylapore witnessed the prayers, music and chants of devotees who keep this day at the temple.

Elevated road from Light House to Guindy proposed

The state government had decided to seek a feasibility report on a project idea that affects the Mylapore – San Thome area.

It intends to look at building a long flyover, like an elevated transport corridor from the Light House end to Guindy.

A budget of Rs.45 lakh has been allotted for this study and the announcement was made recently in the state Assembly by the minister in charge, E. V. Velu who handles the Highways department.

Obituary

N. Sankar, chairman of the Sanmar group who was at the forefront of the Indian PVC

Industry for over five decades, passed away on Sunday, April 17 following a brief illness. He was 76.

He resided in Alwarpet.

Sankar was just 26 years when he started out on his entrepreneurial career by acquiring a major stake in Industrial Chemicals and Monomers, a carbide manufacturing company. He was well known for several successful joint ventures and at one time, under his chairmanship, Sanmar company had over thirty JV partners.

Under his head, Sankar had built the Sanmar group into a billion dollar global conglomerate, a diversified multinational, with presence in India, the USA, Mexico and Egypt.

As a youngster, Sankar was a tennis star in the making, coached by the legend, T. K. Ramanathan but polio at 17 put paid to his tennis ambitions and also ended his term in city league cricket that he was playing at the time.

Driven by an unmatched passion for cricket, he pioneered the concept of professionally running private cricket clubs and had the longest and the most successful stint in running a cricket club in the country. Under his cricket patronage, Jolly Rovers won 20 First Division titles in the Tamil Nadu Cricket Association (TNCA) league and over 60 tournaments in India.

Dashing TN opener from the late 1960s, K. R. Rajagopal was Sankar's all time favourite player. He travelled thousands of miles around the country to watch his club cricketers play domestic matches in an effort to motivate them. Sankar was so passionate about the game that he saw his club players as one from his own family.

Sankar roped in India wicket keeper Bharath Reddy from State Bank in 1982. It was a transformational signing and in the four decades that followed, Jolly Rovers won the first division a record 15 times. Jolly Rovers has provided long term 'cricketing employment' to around 125 players.

The club has produced several Ranji and international cricketers. Sankar once said he wanted to provide the best infrastructure to his club players and created a world class cricketing facility at the sylvan settings within the IIT Campus, one that has been widely acknowledged as one of the most beautiful grounds that his company managed.

As early as 1976, Sankar became a committee member of the TNCA. In the early 1990s, Sankar took over as the President of the TNCA after winning unopposed. He also roped in N. Srinivasan (who had been out of cricketing action) as the VP of the TNCA.

Between 1988 and 1993, he was also active in the administration of the other sport that he so loved from his childhood – tennis. As the President of the Tamil Nadu Tennis Association (TNCA), he transformed the association in the five years that he was at the helm.

"The finances improved quite a bit – the Association I inherited was bankrupt with a negative corpus. Several tournaments were conducted, the most prestigious of which was the Indian Bank Indian Classic Tennis Tournament. During my Presidency, the biggest achievement was streamlining and regularising the administration and operations of TNTA. We improved its reach and infused a lot more interest in it. We also expanded it to other age groups and ladies. It continues to be the best organised and most popular tennis league in the country." Sankar told this writer in November 2020

When he heard about the ill-health of two of the cricket stars of the 1960s, K R Rajagopal and Najam Hussain, both in their 80s now, Sankar organised big support for them in a matter of a few hours.

Sankar provided a great platform for many budding cricketers to pursue their cricketing interests. He stayed through many challenging times making a smooth transition through three different generations – from the golden days of the 1960s to the current set of cricketers for whom cricket has become a full fledged professional career.

While many of the nationally renowned private clubs of the 1970s and 80s such as Mafatlal, ACC and Nirlon that rose to popularity ceased to exist, the personal passion of Sankar, in partnership with Bharath Reddy, has kept Jolly Rovers still relevant and at the top of the city league five decades after he took over.

This church group donates push-cart to less abled hawker

By Juliana Sridhar

Lenten season for Christians, which ended recently, is a time for prayer, penance and works of charity.

In keeping with this spirit, the unit of Saint Vincent de Paul Society of Our Lady of Guidance Church in R. A. Puram, led by Previn Vincent, sponsored a push cart for a physically challenged hawker of this area.

The cart was handed over to Manikandan who used to sell candles outside the church campus. Manikandan cannot walk or talk properly. His hands are also affected. However, in spite of his disabilities, he says he makes it a point to do all he can to earn his living.

Impressed with his determination, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society unit team decided to help him out. The push cart the unit has donated can now be used by Manikandan to sell stuff and help increase earnings.

The cart was formally handed over to him by parish priest Fr. Y. F. Bosco.

Saint Vincent de Paul Society units based in local churches primarily carry out works of charity with donations made by church-goers and well-wishers.

Two people cheated by phishing

By Our Staff Reporter

At least two cases have been filed at the Mylapore police station of cheating by phishing. The cases are related to two Mylaporeans who have lost some sum of money in these scams.

Both people, one from Mylapore and another from the Alwarpet zone are said to have got a message on their handphones – the message said that their PAN number was not valid any more and that to update it, they would have to submit their bank account number.

The complainants say they submitted the data by clicking on links they were sent on their smartphones and within minutes, realised that a good sum of money had been withdrawn. That was when the alarm was sounded and they realised they had been cheated.

A similar phishing case was reported in another part of the city around the same day.

Police keep warning people not to part with any confidential information of any kind and not to respond to any messages or calls that claim to be calls from banks or insurance companies or other financial or business services.

Former TN Ranji cricketer conducts tournament in memory of cricketer-son

By S. Prabhu

Former Ranji cricketer, 86 year old R. Chandrasekaran, who played for State Bank of India through the 1960s and 70s, has made significant donations on the cricketing front in memory of his son, Vasanth Kumar, also a top-rung cricketer who passed away last year on the night of the IPL final.

Vasanth Kumar

In Chennai, he organised a Vasanth Chandrasekaran Memorial Tournament for cricket academies. Next month, he plans to conduct a tournament for under-19 players, in memory of Vasanth.

Chandrasekaran told Mylapore Times that his son wanted to encourage youngsters especially those in the districts and that's the reason he made endowments recently in Vasanth's name in three of the district associations.

"Vasanth had coached Coimbatore and Salem. In memory of his services, I have donated Rs.

2 lakhs each to the Coimbatore and Salem district association. They will be instituting an annual endowment award to the best under-19 cricketer in these two districts."

He has also donated Rs.2 lakhs to the Tamil Nadu Cricket Association (TNCA). From the interest arising from the deposit of this amount, the TNCA will be presenting an annual award to the best woman cricketer of the year. He has also handed over a similar amount to the Puducherry Cricket Association.

R. C. Vasanth Kumar played Ranji trophy cricket for TN and Saurashtra in the late 1990s. He passed away at the age of 45 a few hours after the final of the IPL last year.

In addition to these donations towards cricket, Chandrasekaran has also donated to the Sankara Mutt in Varanasi towards Thathiyaraadhanai (food) for the patshala students studying there.

Over the last six months, he has also gifted two apartments - to Sri Ramakrishna Math, Mylapore and to the Adyar-based Cancer Institute.

This summer, keep a bowl of water outside for street dogs, birds

By Our Staff Reporter

People who love animals are taking a simple step this summer. They are putting out bowls that hold water for the dogs, cats and crows to quench their thirst.

One such activist is Vijayalakshmi of Mandaveli, who is a popular craftsperson.

She has sourced a few water bowls from Blue Cross and has placed them in five spots in the Mandaveli – Mylapore area. One spot is near the parking lot of Thirumylai MRTS station. She says there are many street dogs in that zone. After she kept the water bowl, not just the dogs but even goats that roam here now head to the bowl to have a sip.

Vijayalakshmi says she will be happy if people who live close to this place can refill the bowl twice daily, before noon and early in the evening.

She also says she can help people who want such water bowls which she sources from Blue Cross. Each bowl costs about Rs.130 and holds about 7 litres of water.

You may call her at 9841979307.
