Proprietors of Rayar’s Mess honoured with ‘Spirit of Mylapore’ award

By Our Edit Team

The proprietors of the well-known Rayar’s Mess were decorated with the ‘Spirit of Mylapore’ award by Sundaram Finance at an event held at the corporate’s office in the city on February 6.

This award recognises a person or institution based in Mylapore which has contributed much and made a big impact locally and beyond.

Two members of the Rayar’s Mess family - P. Mohan and K. Manoj - received the award from Rajiv Lochan, MD of Sundaram Finance.

The award carries a citation and a cash component.

Earlier, writer-historian V. Sriram spoke on Mylapore – its uniqueness and on the people and institutions that have made the area in the city very special.

Sundaram Finance’s senior executives, A. N. Raju and Moahan Venkatesan took part.

Rayar’s Mess, based off Arundel Street, that leads from Kutchery Road, is now managed by the fourth generation of the man who founded it, first in the area that now lies opposite Mylapore police station.

The annual award is usually given on the final day of the Sundaram Finance Mylapore Festival (the 2024 edition was held Jan.4 to 7) but since the rain washed out that evening’s events, the award event was held this week.

VINCENT's JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

The Urbaser Sumeet people, the ones who keep our roads and streets clean, are the ones I always notice busy at work at dawn.

One recent morning I noticed a man in khaki doing what seemed like kolam printing. Using a metal plate that he dipped into a bucket of white powder, he was dabbing it on the edge of the street, leaving little kolams there. They made a pretty picture.

'Is the mayor coming?', I asked.

I don't know. I was asked to do this, he said.

Much later, a community activist who resides in our nagar said the local ward councillor had held an area sabha meet. A meet to listen to and discuss with the community issues that bothered them. It was a week-day and a working hour. I wondered at the flippancy of planning such a key event.

Area sabha meets are at the core of grassroots democracy. They must be held in every area of a ward, which has ten areas. While some councillors have held only two or less such meetings, some club them together.

We may blame the elected reps for being uninterested in such important functions. But aren't most citizens keen to have only their personal issues addressed on a one-to-one basis and hardly participate in grassroots action?

These developments paint a grey picture. But there is some positive social action across our city.

A proactive group called Arappor Iyakkam recently created the stage for citizens to highlight key issues that the December rains caused and has promised to present these and their own report to the city's civic body and to the state, for action.

Elsewhere, people taking part in a consultation on the state's plan to spend Rs.185 crores on an eco park planned on land retrieved from Perungudi dump-yard and on Pallikaranai marshland, rejected the project. Many wanted it restored and left as the area originally was. They did not want another Tholkappia Poonga (Adyar Poonga), like the one the state developed in R. A. Puram in an area that once was the estuary zone of the Adyar river and had become a dump-yard.

Further north, residents of Ennore are not only voicing concern but even observing a shutdown, to express their disapproval at developments that have taken place following ammonia gas leak from a pipeline of a private fertiliser factory. This being one of many civic actions the community has taken so far.

Community action must not erupt only when local issues are large and life-threatening. People must be vocal even with small, local issues.

In observing the first phase of Chennai Metro's work to construct rail lines that will crisscross the larger Mylapore area, I am unhappy at the way state agencies and Metro have taken people for granted. They held unplanned citizens' meets only when some people demanded them and they have left many basic requirements unattended. Issues that will bother people for over three years.

A handful of Mylaporeans are debating Metro-related issues online and tugging at one official or the other for redress. Why isn't the larger community pro-active?

Chennai Metro issues: clear encroachments for smooth traffic flow

Regarding issues around Chennai Metro. First remove vehicles dumped on streets and pavements and clear the roadside shops; for smooth flow of traffic on diverted routes.

Chennai Metro issues: appeal to MTC

With traffic diversions for Chennai Metro work, MTC buses from Thiruvalluvar Salai stop going towards Ajanta must stop at R K Salai near AVM Rajeswari Kalayana Mandapam - this must apply to buses on routes 21, 21C, A1, 1, 1C and 1D.

The fare charged by MTC is also extra (i.e. from Ajantha to Central Railway Station it was Rs. 7 earlier in ordinary bus and in deluxe it was Rs 15) but now the fare is Rs.8 on ordinary bus and Rs. 17 on deluxe bus - which is not fair. MTC must address these issues.

Beating children in schools

Recently, when I was walking along Adam Street towards Mandaveli market, I heard the thud of a scale and a student screaming in pain inside a school here. A teacher was heard shouting at a student in a menacing voice and hitting him repeatedly with the scale.

I went inside and enquired and the teacher denied hitting a student. Teachers should be strictly instructed by the school authorities and the government to desist from beating children.

MY STORY

This Republic Day event has made a big impression on me

By V. VENKATESHAN

"What do you aspire to be?" I asked the audience. One said: "Chemistry scientist". The second person said: "IPS officer"

I was stunned by the confidence and determination in their responses.

"How will you do that?"

The teens explained all about the UPSC exam, the civil services . . .

This interaction happened at a recent Republic Day celebration at Gayathri Memorial Training Center at the Community College in Pattinapakkam run by Sevalaya Trust. I was the chief guest here.

I was in an area where the houses are simple and people live with basic amenities. In these youths and in the women, I could see determination and commitment. The resilience of these individuals, despite limited resources, left a lasting impression on me.

This community college runs a vocational course in tailoring for women. They also run a computer centre for school students and women.

That R-Day morning, two students spoke in English, on India's independence and the significance of Republic Day. I shared with them anecdotes on Thiruvalluvar, Mahakavi Bharathiyar and Swami Vivekananda. On their thoughts about aiming big, being bold and not to stop till the goal is reached.

Murali, Sevalaya Trust's founder, is a staunch follower of Mahatma Gandhi, mahakavi Bharathiyar and swami Vivekananda.

Sevalaya Trust, started as a small initiative in a thatched roof hut in Kasuva village near Thiruninravur, is running schools, hospitals, old-age homes and vocational training and livelihood skill centres in 27 centres in Tamil Nadu.

This Republic Day visit left a lasting impression on me, inspiring not only myself but also my son, Raghav, and my family members who accompanied me.

Back to school. 50 years after graduation

The 1973 – '74 of Lady Sivaswami Ayyar Girls' High School were on campus to celebrate a milestone

By Preetha K.

The alumni of the batch 1973 – '74 of Lady Sivaswami Ayyar Girls' High School attended the golden jubilee celebrations of this batch in the school campus on January 26 to make this milestone a special day to remember.

"25 of us assembled in the school that morning. The dress code was green and since our uniform was also green, it brought back wonderful memories," said Geetha Raghavan, a retired special educator who, along with Dr R. Muthulakshmi, formed a WhatsApp group to bring these batchmates together.

The school had organised a Republic Day function, followed by the alumni meet.

Subhalakshmi Kesavan, retired associate professor, Ethiraj College for Women from the 1970 alumni batch was the special guest for the alumni meet.

She recalled some campus incidents that stood out for her and also shared her happiness at her children and grandchildren being students of the same school.

Dr. Thangam Meganathan, chairperson, Rajalakshmi Engineering College, of the 1973

'74 batch, also spoke briefly at the event.

"It was nostalgic meeting our friends after 50 years, some of whom we had lost touch with completely. We are still talking to each other over the phone to share our experiences over the years. I am yet to get over the excitement. We also met Nirmala teacher who became the headmistress later," adds Geetha.

The alumni of the 1973 -'74 batch collected a corpus fund of Rs. 6.81 lakh and handed it over to the school management to be used for the ongoing breakfast scheme for girls.

The Reunion also celebrated the get together of the silver jubilee batch.

"The silver jubilee batch was present too and they handed over a donation to the management. They said they were inspired by us and that made us very happy. We hope to be in touch and also do more for the school," adds Geetha.

The session was filled with nostalgia and hearty conversations, says Geetha.

Every year, January 26 is marked on the school's calendar for the Old Girls' Reunion. The school's staff in charge of its alumni work hard for weeks to collate data, plan the Reunion and communicate to the 'old girls'.

Parvathi Bavan's new space in Alwarpet: for quiet snack / meal break

By Elakiya Prabhu

It has been a year since the popular Parvathi Bavan Sweets moved to Eldams Road in Alwarpet, from its previous location opposite Udhi Eye Hospital, off TTK Road.

But it seems to need to draw more people to check out its snacks and sweets and hence, launched an anniversary offer last weekend, offering a discount on bills on all that people bought here.

The boli is special here – thengai, paruppu and masala varieties. Their samosas are not spicy – prepared to cater to many seniors who drop in for a snack.

Parvathi has been known for its sweets; the date-fruit cake sells hot here. Thattai, masala peanuts, chips . . . fresh and crunchy.

For lunch, a mini meal is on offer and going forward, Chinese and North Indian food is to be added to the menu.

Air-conditioned and smartly designed, the space provides a quiet break for office-goers and families who reside in this Alwarpet area.

The not-so-great side - having its 'live' jalebi counter in the open, unprotected from dust off the busy road.

Man lights fire outside gate of Sri Kapali Temple

Mylapore police are investigating a case of an unidentified person emptying a can of petrol outside the locked east gate of Sti Kapali Temple and setting that on fire around midnight of Tuesday this past week.

People who were in the area shot the act on their phone and have shared the image. Property of the temple was not affected.

People point out that the temple does not have guards outside its gates.

File photo

By Our Edit Team

The 2024 edition of Art Fest 2024 will be held on Sunday, February 25 from 10 a.m. to 7.30 p.m. at Nageswara Rao Park, Luz.

This fest is set in a public space, courtesy Chennai Corporation and Sundaram Finance, for artists to showcase their works of art and for people to visit and enjoy a variety of creative styles and works.

Art Fest is a public art festival (non-profit) and for the Feb.25 show, 90 artists – of all ages, some from outside Chennai – will be participating.

Registration had to be closed 48 hours after it opened due to the big rush. Each artist gets 6ft space in the open air to showcase his / her works.

Two workshops, for children, will be held that Sunday (details will be issued soon).

Follow updates on the Art Fest at – <https://www.facebook.com/artmartchennai/>

Poor student seeks funds for post-surgery care

By Our Edit Team

This is an appeal for financial support for a school boy who cannot afford the costly but critical medical treatment. Mehdi Usen, a 10-year-old student from Chennai High School, Eldams Road Vannia Teynampet, has been battling liver cancer. Doctors have recommended a corrective surgery, and with the generosity of many kind-hearted individuals, the school has successfully raised Rs.2 lakhs for the initial procedure.

The school Headmistress, Revathy has emailed Mylapore Times to say that an additional Rs.5 lakhs rupees is needed for post-surgery care and ongoing treatment. This boy is currently receiving treatment at Rela Institute, Chromepet.

Mehdi's single mother, Sajeda Khatoon, has been taking care of three children, including a 5 year old and a 4-year-old.

Duo dance to film music inside temple: video creates uproar

A social media post by two youths who shot themselves dancing to a film song inside Sri Kapali Temple has triggered widespread criticism.

Though the post was posted in December 2023 it seems to have gained traction now.

The duo who posted the video have taken it off now and apologised.

A temple official said that a complaint was registered with the Cyber Crime wing of TN Police. The officer said that though her team had checked the CCTV footage of the past, the 'dancing act' of the duo was not located.

1960 batchmates lead attendance of over 200 at Old Bedeans Reunion

The 99th Annual General Body Meeting and Reunion of the Old Bedeans Association (St. Bedes Anglo-Indian Hr. Sec. School, San Thome) was held on January 26.

Old Bedeans from across the world (Australia, New Zealand, USA, UAE, UK and Canada) are aware that January 26 is always the annual reunion, so a few 'old boys' time their trip to the city at this time of the year, This year, some 230 Old Bedeans attended the Reunion, The senior-most batch that registered was from the 1960 batch. The golden jubilarians were of the 1974 batch and the silver jubilarians were the 1999 batch. A few from each of these batches were present. Old Bedeans of batches 1978, 1998 and 2023 were in appreciable numbers. This year's signature campaign was themed 'Say No to Drugs' ; every Old Bedean who signed the campaign got a sticker that read 'Proud to be a Bedean' Retired and present-day teachers were also present.

Three weeks since roads, streets and junctions were barricaded, traffic diverted and preliminary work started on Chennai Metro's rail project in the greater Mylapore zone. Some major issues worry, frustrate and challenge Mylaporeans. Listed here are some key issues.

MESSY ROADS FOR DIVERTED TRAFFIC

Most streets / roads on which traffic diversions were effected have not been relaid. Patchwork done but is shoddy. Example - your bones will rattle while driving down Thiruvengadam Street, a key 'diversion' route. The concrete patches are examples of crude civil work. Residents here also want some speed-breakers.

FEEDER BUS SERVICES - MTC CAN YOU HELP PLEASE?

Lots of Mylaporeans want feeder bus services, now that access to Thirumylai rail station and Mandaveli terminus is restricted (by no-go zones) and bus services are cut off from the heart of Mylapore. MTC has not organised face-to-face meets to discuss possibilities.

VIOLATORS APLENTY

Motorists and car drivers flout most new traffic regulations. Marshalls have no control. Traffic Police helpless - what can 4/5 policemen handling dozens of jobs really do? The violators have a free run and pose dangers.

CHENNAI METRO

FRUSTRATION POINTS FOR MYLAPOREANS

The scene on R K Mutt Road, opposite Thirumylai Railway Station

CHAOS AT ROUNDABOUT. POLICE ARE SPECTATORS.

Traffic from four channels congregates around Metro's work zone in R A Puram, off the 'Jesus Calls' campus. Traffic on Srinivasa Avenue, headed to Adyar / San Thome. affects vehicles from Adyar and Mandaveli side. Mess No.1. Traffic from San Thome towards Adyar is allowed to flow all the time and chokes the roundabout. Mess No.2

Traffic from Adyar towards Mandaveli/ Mylapore is choked at this roundabout - so vehicles pile up till Malar (now MGM) Hospital. Mess No.3. Trapped in this mess is the traffic from Mandaveli headed south. Mess No.4

Can more Traffic Police with walkie-talkies regulate traffic flow at peak hours? No sign of any efforts - just 5 / 6 policemen on duty, either as spectators or frustrated onlookers.

DANGERS ON NARROW STREETS

Since the heart of Mylapore is indeed an island now, locked in by no-go zones, motorists are taking narrow streets as 'short cuts', thus posing danger to residents here. Example - Robertson Street. It links South Canal Bank Road / Mandaveli east area to south-east R. A. Puram. But the narrow space cannot take the volumes at peak hours. No regulation. Contractor's marshalls are often spectators or just ignored.

DUST-POLLUTED ZONE

The fringes of Metro's till-now busiest work zone - in R A Puram - once a playground - is plastered with earth spilled by lorries transporting soil excavated by underground boring machines. Layers of soil seen on sides of R K Mutt Road, Brodies Castle Road, D G S Dinakaran Road. Dust pollution kicks up as motorists drive on the edges.

They planted paddy, danced around bonfire and cooked pongal. In MRC Nagar

By Deepa Venkatraman

The community at Rani Meyyammai Towers, MRC Nagar, had a grand, four-day Pongal celebration.

An effort was made to recreate the atmosphere of a village on this campus; then, residents danced around a bonfire, planted rice saplings and cooked samathuva chakkarai pongal the traditional way.

The young joined the seniors to decorate their lobbies with festive decor—cutouts of cows, pongal paanai, sugarcane, thematic kolams, 3D village hut and merry-go-round models.

The community enjoyed a spectacular programme of traditional dances—puli aatam, oyil aatam, mayil aatam, thappattam, and karagattam performed by folk artistes.

Fun-filled races for children, a zippy carnival and an entertainment programme – the last was where residents showcased their talents.
