Avian flu: dead crows seen in Mandaveli area

By Ganga Sridhar

Last Saturday morning (Feb.7), residents of Velayutham Raja Street in Mandaveli reported that at least five crows were seen dead on the street at various times. The local Chennai Corporation officials were alerted. GCC staff and Urbaser civic workers cleared the dead crows and disinfected the area.

A note was sent to all residents,asking people not to touch the dead birds. A giant peepul tree here is home to over a hundred or more crows. On Sunday morning, residents noticed a few crows, looking sickly, dragging themselves to corners of streets or buildings. In some areas, people have reported sickly pigeons dropping to the ground in apartment blocks. Avian flu has been reported from many areas of the city the past week.

VINCENT's JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

I called Jaishri P. Rao recently, to get feedback on the cookery contests hosted as part of the annual Sundaram Finance Mylapore Festival. We had two. One on snacks based on jaggery. And one on vegetarian soups. Themes suggested by Sridhar Venkatraman, known for his Food Walks in our city, and his friends who are passionate about food.

Jaishri has written and published a unique book. A book which documents the cuisines and celebrations of the Thanjavur Maharashtrians. She was a judge for one of the contests.

The Festival's cookery contests have been recent additions to the events. And they have always drawn a good response.

This time, there was a participant who came all the way from the far end of OMR, Rajiv Gandhi Salai, or the IT corridor as many may know it. Then, there was a person who took part in the jaggery snack contest who had cooked substantial portions, enough to share it with a number of fellow-participants. Jaishri told me that a lot of effort had gone into his snack, by the way he explained it. And there were a few women who took time to present their entries beautifully on the table at the venue, courtesy the Nithya Amirtham restaurant.

I must recall a story Sridhar had shared with me of a previous contest when a participant got 'mixed' up with the theme of the day, cooking a snack which was slated for the next day, but didn't give up - she called her family to arrange the ingredients required for the food, rushed home, made the snack and brought it to the restaurant; and if memory serves me right, won a prize!

Food excites many people. Many love cooking it. Many more enjoy partaking of it. And the ones who cook want to share their experiences and want to learn from others.

So what is stopping a few people of Mylapore zone from launching and sustaining a Food Club, a group which meets locally, perhaps brings to a table food themed for the occasion, shares, demonstrates and has a good time too. Surely, this makes for community-based initiative...

'Old Girls' of Lady Sivaswami Ayyar Girls School share memories

● The photos and report on Lady Sivaswami Ayyar Girls School Reunion bring warm memories. I am from the batch of 1955. My school days were truly unforgettable, thanks to the incredible teachers like Chellammal, Sathyabhama, Sarojini and Gnanambal who instilled discipline and love.

- Geetha Natarajan

● My mother and mother-in-law, now in their 90s, are from this school. I studied in this great institution only for two years in 1961-'62. The values imparted by Saraswathi teacher, Headmistress, Bhama teacher and Chellam are cherished and imbibed by me till this day. We were taught to clean the area around a beautiful statue of Lord Krishna in the campus and took part in several other activities.

- Anasuya Ram

● This school is a great institution which helped me to be what I am today. Punctuality, discipline, leadership - I can go on. Chellam, Kamal teacher and Bama teacher - we are always indebted to them for shaping me and others. The opportunities the school gave me to develop interest in dance, drawing and gardening is helping me to a great extent to spending value time now.

- Lalitha Vasudevan

● I am proud to be the 'old' student of this school - I am from the 1976 batch. I miss our Sathyabhama ma'am very much. The school prayers, the sports meet and the march past are activities that are still fresh in memory. I miss my classmates and the good old days.

- Godha Srinivasan

On Mylapore Festival

I came to be at the Mylapore Festival this January after a decade. It has transformed dramatically yet it was full of the same energy and enthusiasm that I felt 10 years ago. Seeing some of those folk dances on the stage here, I suggest we have kolatam and kaikottikali artistes on stage next year.

- Gauri

Old cars, bikes dumped on Abiramapuram street

Lots of old and scrap vehicles are left in many places off Abiramapuram 3rd Street. Many are dumped here for over a year. They occupy valuable public space and add to traffic congestion in small streets of this area. The Urbaser staff are not able to clear the garbage and filth under these vehicles. Can the local GCC and Police officials clear them all?

Navaratna kavacham for Sri Uppiliappan on display (July 20, 1996)

By Chitra Sivakumar

Carnatic musician Padma Veeraraghavan wanted to get a navaratna kavacham made for Sri Uppiliappan in the Kumbakonam temple. She entrusted the job to D. K. Murthy, a pioneer in crafting temple and antique jewellery. Padma is the secretary of the Sri Uppiliappan Kainkary Sabha of the temple. Six goldsmiths from Nagercoil worked day and night to get the kavacham ready in six months.

Worth a few lakh rupees, the kavacham is made of pure gold and studded with diamonds and precious stones.

It will be on public display at D K Murthy & Co. on North Mada Street on July 26.

Rapid chess tournament on Kasturi Ranga Road (July 20, 1996)

To mark the International Day of Chess, observed on July 20, the Mikhail

The bejewelled kavacham

Tal Chess Club has drawn up a packed agenda. There will be a rapid chess tourney at 10 am, said Ebenesser Joseph, the secretary of the club, which is housed inside the Russian Cultural Centre, on Kasturi Ranga Road. The club will felicitate International Master T. N. Parameswaran on the occasion.

Is paid parking outside Vitan authorised? (July 20, 1996)

A board designating the area outside Vitan Supermarket in Luz as paid parking has reappeared. A group of boys, armed with receipt books, are collecting Rs. 2 and 3 from people parking their vehicles there. The residents of Krishnaswamy Avenue complained to Chennai Corporation. Following this, officials visited the site and removed the board. They also seized the receipt books and took the boys into custody. The assistant commissioner of Corporation Zone X, Rasheeda Bhanu, clarified that the collection of payment was unauthorised.

Vadam making: tips from Abhiramapuram entrepreneur (July 27, 1996)

By Chitra Sivakumar

Lakshmi Vanchi was featured in the Mylapore Times weekly column, Women at Work, highlighting her vadam business. Lakshmi, a resident of Abhiramapuram 3rd Street, shared a few tips on her business.

Trial and error will help one become a master of the game, she said. She advised beginners in local business/ventures to take small orders in the early days and cautioned them against being in a hurry to make a quick buck.

She laid stress on maintaining a high standard of hygiene, and being careful when weighing and packaging.

Chennai Metro: TBM bores through and reaches Luz Circle. Marina to Mylapore channel created

By Our Edit Team

On February 9, Monday afternoon, the TBM (tunnel boring machine) employed for Chennai Metro project finally bore through the earth in Luz Circle zone and emerged in an underground area off the Navashakti Vinayaka Temple and completed a marathon effort.

Cheers rent the air inside a make-shift tent where dozens of engineers and workers on this project acknowledged this effort that was telecast internally, a task that has tested many of them over some years.

This progress will arrange for a tunnel-connect between the Marina and Mylapore points for this Metro rail project - for a Metro rail line that will run underground via San Thome and Kutchery Road, intersect at Luz, with the line moving towards Alwarpet.

This TBM was launched at the Marina in Sept.23, 2023 and the delay in work on this sector of Phase 2 of Metro Rail is due to many factors.

Luz / Mylapore will be a key intersection junction for two lines of Chennai Metro – that run east-west and north-south.

TBM on downline makes breakthrough at Mandaveli

Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) has said that it has achieved a significant milestone in Phase 2, Corridor-3, with the successful breakthrough of the downline Tunnel Boring Machine (TBM) “Noyyal” at the Mandaveli shaft on Feb.7.

In a social media post, CMRL said that tunnelling between Greenways Road station (in R. A. Puram) and Mandaveli station commenced in September 2023, deploying two TBMs, called ‘Noyyal’ and ‘Vaigai.’

While the upline TBM called Vaigai achieved its breakthrough in October 2025, the downline TBM Noyyal completed its job on February 7

The tunnel, executed by M/s Larsen & Toubro

Ltd, has a total length of 763 metres and passes beneath densely built-up areas, including below 75 buildings.

CMRL said that the Mandaveli shaft area posed additional challenges due to the presence of major underground utilities such as sewer lines, water pipelines and power cables, necessitating careful planning and extended construction time. The TBMs also encountered predominantly silty sand and sandy soil conditions.

Fusion arts therapy course for women

Andhra Mahila Sabha’s unit in Mylapore is conducting a skill-based workshop in fusion arts therapy by an experienced government -certified trainer. It has a blend of music, movement, mudras, mandala and storytelling and this introductory session, says Lavanya Srinivas, the project In-charge for the AMS Skill Development Centre. ‘It will equip you with awareness activities for your emotional well being’.

The host also offers a 30 hour, short term skill training course to help you kickstart a career path in fusion therapy. This leads to work with children and adults in schools, communities and wellness settings.

This workshop is only for women, 18 years and above. Venue: Skill Development Centre at AMS Mahila Vidyalaya, Luz Church Road, near Nageswara Rao Park.

The introductory sessions are on Feb.16, 18 and on Feb. 20. Register for a free orientation session – contact 9884472301

Fish sales spike as avian flu keeps people away from chicken

By Madhan Kumar

So why has the fish hawkers market on Marina Loop Road been busy on weekday mornings now? Because the avian flu prevalence is driving people away from chicken and eggs to play it safe since the advisory from the civic body went out after the outbreak recently. The advisory has also asked people not to consume half-boiled eggs or poorly cooked chicken and eggs. Weekday mornings at the fish stalls on Marina Loop Road are dull and have standard sales. Not now. Many people are here buying fish. Prices have even doubled, said a shopper here on Wednesday morning. A hawker said sales are up because people are avoiding chicken and eggs. This demand has encouraged hawkers to hike fish prices.

Church feast of hoary heritage

By Our Edit Team

The car procession that mark the annual celebration of the feast of saint Lazarus by the community of Our Lady of Guidance Church in R. A. Puram is the grandest.

The rain did not dampen the event – the first procession was taken out on Saturday, January 24 night after the Holy Mass, and the second after the morning Holy Mass on Sunday, January 25.

Nine statues – of Mary and a few saints, including that of saint Lazarus, were taken out in cars that were decorated with flowers and illuminated, through the streets of the church zone where many Catholics reside. A band played music and led the procession. Then came the group of altar-servers.

Families offered flower garlands as the procession made stops at many places. Some of these families have, for generations, been patrons of this festival, which was initiated by their elders.

The Trust which wholly manages this celebration says this is the 444th edition of the festival.

Said P. Delma Thanarani, a teacher and church member, “Families who resided here and are now based outside the city or abroad come back at this time to take part in the feast. It is a festival very close to their hearts.”

Said Cinthia Jude, a college professor and resident who has written books on the history of the church and the festival, “This feast is wholly managed and funded by a Trust whose members trace their lineage to a local headman who started this celebration. They ensure it is always a grand event.”

Families who made vows for this occasion served church-goers and guests with water, buttermilk, biryani and payasam - a tradition followed here at festival time.

Hawkers had set up stalls along Lazarus Church Road and this turned into a small market which remained alive past midnight that weekend, creating an atmosphere which, elders of the church said, existed in a larger spread in the 1960s and 70s when devotees from across the city headed here for the feast.
