Ramakrishna Math decorated with 'Spirit of Mylapore' award

By Our Edit Team

Ramakrishna Math, Chennai was decorated with the annual 'Spirit of Mylapore' award which Sundaram Finance awards during the annual Mylapore Festival, which it supports wholly.

The award event, a crisp one, was held on the final evening of the fest, January 12, in the main stage area in Sannidhi Street outside Sri Kapali Temple.

Moahan Ananda Venkatesan, senior vice-president of the company presented the award to the Math president swami Satyajnananandaji Maharaj. Its manager swami Ranganayakanandaji Maharaj was also present.

Ramakrishna Math in Chennai, established in 1897 by Swami Ramakrishnananda, is the first south India branch of the Ramakrishna Order.

The Math actively contributes to education through institutions like Vivekananda Centenary Hr Secondary School and Sri Ramakrishna Math National School, and supports learning with facilities such as the Centenary Library and Vivekananda Book Bank, fostering both academic excellence and character building.

In healthcare, it runs a Leprosy Rehabilitation Centre and a Charitable Dispensary, offering affordable or free treatment to economically disadvantaged individuals in Chennai and beyond.

Believing that the progress of villages fuels national growth, the Math has been offering a free one-year nursing assistant course to under-privileged rural girls for over 20 years.

Spiritual discourses, yoga, and meditation at the Math and its Vivekananda Cultural Centre are aimed to inspire purposeful living.

The award citation said - 'Ramakrishna Math, Chennai, stands as a symbol of how spirituality and service can uplift society, fostering a self-reliant, resilient, and compassionate community.'

VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

There are many people who get excited with the Mylapore Festival. Vijayalakshmi of Mandaveli is one of them. This craftsperson starts making little things to display and sell from a table space in one of the inner streets off Sri Kapali Temple.

This year, her daughter, who has studied design and art, joined her. And the two seemed to have had a swell time at the street bazaar.

People like Vijayalakshmi have been requesting us to set up a Bazaar space, the way we create for some 25 members of self-help groups sent by the TN Women's Development Corporation. The Mylapore folks are keen to display the little things they do at home - art, craft, needlework, eco-food stuff and the like. And we are seriously considering the suggestion.

Another development triggered by the festival's weekend events at Kolavizhi Amman Temple is the stream of suggestions from people who have spaces to spare, to consider using such spaces to host events. Perhaps a meeting of writers and poets. Perhaps, informal ghazals evenings on a weekend.

The enthusiasm that was shown at the two cookery contests, one themed on Millets Tiffin and the other on Sweet Boli, makes us think of widening this side of the Festival. Perhaps, consider registering more people for the contests, and after the judges have done their job, sharing the goodies and talking about the recipes. Perhaps, even having a session with a wellknown food personality.

We have been amazed at the interest that children in the pre-teen group showed at our events. Be it chess, crafts-learning, Kolam classes or cycling at dawn on a heritage tour. That Sunday morning, at least 30 minutes after tour leader Ramanuja had moved out from the start point of the Cycle Tour, at least three parents dashed down, their kids in tow, keen to join the group, the kids having woken up late! We traced Ramanuja and got the kids connect at different spots.

The buzz therefore makes us discuss hosting more interactive events for children at the Festival. Perhaps devote an entire weekend to children. If you have ideas on this, do share them.

The model set of a thinnai veedu which we put up on Sannidhi Street to celebrate the landmark contribution to primary education by a man who was popularly known as Dadi Vadyar, has led to something very positive; with 'old students' of the Vadyar schools considering ways to improve the education at the school that exists now and traces its roots to Vadyar's time.

So we ask - how can we highlight the memories and landmarks of Mylapore at the Festival in ways that not only get people to relive memories but also show the light on less-known people and places that have made Mylapore of today?

Sewage outflow from manhole; Abiramapuram

The manhole located right in the middle of the road in Abhirampuram First Street closer to Lakshana Art Gallery is damaged and sewage water has been flowing on the road and polluting the area.

The road is damaged and a pothole which has been created poses a danger to motorists.

When it rains, water stagnation takes place and imagine this water mixing with the sewage. It has been two weeks since the sewage outflow began and GCC's local unit officials have not attended to the issue.

Mylapore Festival Puppet show: good experience for kids

The puppet show organised under the Mylapore Festival banner in our community was a fantastic way to kick-start our Pongal celebrations.

It was hilarious, thought provoking and a wonderful opportunity for the kids to experience this traditional art form. Kudos to the Aashiana committee for bringing this to us.

It is good to see Tamil language and culture being shared with the kids which is a rare treat these days. Kudos to the puppeteers from Kanyakumari for preserving and showcasing their art form.

Appeal to Police: about Mylapore Festival

If we can get the TN Police and the TN Tourism to accord importance to the Mylapore Festival since it is unique and showcases the state in the city's heritage zone, then we can also ask them to declare sections of Mada Streets as 'No Traffic' zones on evenings of the festival. This will make the fest enjoyable and free of hassles.

Nageswara Rao Park is dusty; home to cats and dogs

The outer pathway inside Nageswara Rao Park has been used to construct a storm water drain. Huge mounds of earth remain as do the materials like furniture and gym accessories that got knocked down.

Earlier, the outer periphery was about 510 metres. Now, walkers have to use only the short inner round. There are many dogs and cats in the park who also pose a danger to people. Why is GCC not caring for this popular park?

- Ramesh Raman

Messy pavement of Dr. Ranga Road

The footpath on Dr.Ranga Road from Mangalam Motors end is in a terrible condition. It is pot-holed and rubbish is dumped here and there. Three trash carts are parked on it. A van that says it is an ambulance has been parked here for months. Can GCC local unit officials and Urbaser Sumeet act please?

MYLAPORE REWIND

This column carries excerpts from Mylapore Times, 1995 onwards. This week, we focus on March & April 1995

MLA promises power substation for Mylapore (Mar 25-31, 1995)

By R. Meera

At a meeting with the residents of Abhirampuram and the surrounding areas and with Exnora members, Mylapore MLA Karate V. Balasubramaniam said that a power substation would be set up at R A Puram to address the increasing problems of voltage fluctuations; this would cost Rs. 52 crore. It was also disclosed that plans were on the anvil to divert storm water from Kapali Temple tank and Chitrakulam zones. Officials said that plans were afoot to install sodium vapour lamps and relay roads in Mylapore.

Mandaveli banker turns novelist for a cause (Mar 18-24, 1995)

A resident points to a rainwater harvesting facility manager R. Easwar has published a book, the sale proceeds of which will be given to the underprivileged. He has given the copyrights of the book to Helpage India.

Senior couple releases cassettes to promote Sanskrit (Apr 1 - 7, 1995)

By Chitra Sivakumar

Sanskrit lovers Kalyani Sundaracharlu, a school teacher, and her husband R. Sundaracharlu, a retired pharma industry executive, released 12 cassettes and printed literature for adults and children to learn Sanskrit. The cassettes have been brought out by the Sanskrit Education Society.

Pathala Gangai water saving scheme in Mylapore (Mar 25-31, 1995)

By R. Meera

Pathala Gangai is the brainchild of the Environment Society of Mandaveli. As an answer to the water crisis, V. Subramanian and

Dr. Madhavan came up with the idea of diverting rainwater to wells. The duo also thought out a 'roof top scheme' to direct rainwater which collects in terraces to be directed to a well. The whole exercise would cost Rs. 500 to Rs. 1,500.

New facility for 'painless' removal of kidney stones

The R. G. Stone Urology Research Institute set up its Madras wing on the 5th floor of Kaliappa Hospital (in R A Puram). It has introduced the extra-corporeal shockwave lithotripsy facility that can "painlessly" remove kidney and ureteric stones. The procedure will cost between Rs. 10,000 and Rs. 12,000.

Personal computer helps BSNL engineer address issues (Apr 1-7, 1995)

When lots of calls are made to Mylapore's divisional engineer of BSNL, Jyoti Shankar, it is the PC (personal computer) in the office that he turns to. The PC helps him respond immediately and provide information quickly to subscribers on the status of new telephone applications, complaints pertaining to excessive billing or applications for transfer of lines.

Yummy Tiffin Sweet Boli

By Preetha K.

Cookery contests generate good responses and excitement.

They are a platform to showcase the foodstuff that people learn to cook.

So when entries for the two cookery contests for the Mylapore Festival 2025 opened, registrations closed in three days.

The two contests were themed on Millets Tiffin and Sweet Boli. The venue - the gracious Nitya Amirtham restaurant on North Mada Street, Mylapore.

Sridhar Venkataraman, foodie, food walk curator and civic activist curated these events. Sridhar said that one memory of the event is of a woman who turned up with her Boli on the afternoon of the Millets Tiffin contest but was unfazed; she called up her family and in minutes, got a tiffin prepared and had it sent to the contest venue and that tiffin won a prize.

Here is what some winners had to say.

Mythili Radhakrishnan: 67, home maker

I made samai thavala adai and kozhukattai. They said only one could be submitted. So, we went ahead with samai thavala adai. The judges tasted the recipe and they liked it. This is a traditional recipe learnt from my parents. I used samai, chana dal, toor dal, jeera and pepper to make the thavala adai. My daughter Mathangi supported me. The experience was too good. I want to take part in more contests.

Jaishree Karunanidhi: 39, IT employee

I made ragi multi millet pasta and this dish was planned by my daughter Niharika who is in class 10. I used edible ragi cups and multi millet red sauce pasta to make this dish. I felt very happy when my name was announced as the winner. I particularly like the Mylapore Festival because it highlights our traditions and our children get some good exposure to them.

Sankar Kiran: 41, IT professional

I made sweet dal boli and also rabdi as a side dish. I learnt the recipe from the internet. For the past 7 years, I have taken to making new dishes after checking out recipes online. It has become my favourite pastime. My friends encouraged me to participate in this contest. I love the Mylapore Festival and wish it is extended to other areas, as well.

Krithika Mahesh: 42, homemaker

I made coin boli - which is my innovation. I wanted to make a boli where tradition meets health. So, I retained the traditional coconut boli filling but the outer layer was made from wheat flour, kanji flour and a powder made of 7 to 8 seeds like flax seeds, cucumber seeds and pumpkin seeds.

The Mylapore Festival is a very good platform for homemakers and entrepreneurs and I wish it becomes bigger

Jayanthi Vijayakumar: 55, homemaker

I made my own innovation - sweet boli in which the stuffing had pumpkin, sweet potato, coconut and jaggery. For the outer layer, I used wheat flour and black chana dal flour. We got confused and brought boli on the day reserved for millets tiffin competition. But I didn't drop out. With the help of my daughter-in-law Shanmuga Priya, we made multi millets dosa and tomato thokku. This won the appreciation of the judges.

I am winning for the second consecutive year. Last year, I won in the sundal contest.

Design for new-look Nageswara Rao Park presented to public

Suggestions, feedback solicited by architect. Some people want park to stay the way it has been

By Our Edit Team

The first look of the proposed renovation plan for Nageswara Rao Park was unveiled at the park on Monday, January 20 morning. It was attended by 20 people in the presence of the Mylapore MLA and staff of the firm of architects which has created the design.

The design has features like two water bodies on the west side, food kiosks on the north east end, two gates, children's play area, a gazebo, an open air theatre-like setting, fountains, a herbal garden and, what is labeled 'interactive space'.

The design does not indicate wash-rooms and drinking water services nor incorporates the two gyms that are being constructed in the south-west end of the park at great cost from the MLA's fund.

The MLA has said that Rs.8 crores is earmarked for the new-look park. He says there will be more consultations with people and the views of park users will be incorporated.

At the Open House on Monday, park users made some suggestions. Those who play shuttle-cock in the park asked for a space while some sought a stage where teens can learn dance and yoga.

A representative of the architect's firm said that the design was arrived at after conversations with park users.

However, soon after the design was made public by Mylapore Times, many people highlighted a few key issues – why not restore only sections of the park that need attention and let the old areas be; some said that the park must not have food spaces, play spaces and stages where loud events can be held but it must remain a green and quiet zone.

A few others said that spending Rs.8 crores on redoing this park fully was a waste of public money when all that was needed was restoration of the eastern side where a new drain was laid pre-monsoon time and the area looks like a battered zone now.

Some say that 'fancy' ideas must be kept out. Ideas like a herbal garden, food kiosks and fountains are wasteful expenditure, people said.

Some others want the project promoters to commit a budget for the park's maintenance, saying that in many cases in the past, fountains ran dry and spaces like herbal gardens were vandalised.

The MLA has told Mylapore Times that he has suggested building a path for walkers above the drain: this may seem not a good idea because there will be times when the drain may need attention / repairs and hence, must be left free from construction on around it.

EXHIBITION OF ARTISTIC QUILTS

Quilt India Foundation presents "Birds of Paradise" - a collection of quilts received in response to the annual challenge organised by The Square Inch, India's first quilting studio based in Chennai.

Visitors can expect a visually captivating exhibition showcasing a range of artistic excellence.

Along with this, is an exhibition of 'One Block Wonder' quilts for the first time in India. One Block Wonder quilts are textile art created from a single piece of fabric.

At Sri Sankara Hall, TTK Road, Alwarpet.

On Jan. 25 and 26 : 11 am to 8 pm. On Jan. 27 - 11 am to 6 pm. Open to all.

PEOPLE'S VOICES

● Avoid play zones

A park is not play area for adults. Please avoid creating spaces for shuttle / games. I have personally experienced the disturbances that a set of people cause by their loud actions.

- Manigandan Babu

● Avoid food kiosks

Please refrain from having a food court. The very purpose of a quiet, green space gets defeated. We come here to get some fresh air and feel fit and energised here I don't live (in that area) right now but do certainly know the importance of having green parks. Don't make it commercial.

- Krithika Rajgopal

● Cut out food, noise and sport plans

The plan put out seems well on track to make this park an unwieldy mess. I want it to remain mainly a place to walk in and a quiet place in which to rest / unwind. In one corner, they can have a place for children below eight. Please keep out the food, noise, sport & entertainment ideas

- P G Bhaskar

● Retain original features

For a longtime, some civil works have been going on. There is no need for more major works. no food kiosks too. Keep it simple and easy for walkers.

- Gopinath Srinivasan

● Any budget for park maintenance?

Budget of Rs.8 crores? Is this redevelopment really necessary? Just bring the park to the state it was before the drain was built.

Kids play area plans - we know what happens to the equipment in a year's time. Most important is maintenance. GCC spends crores of rupees on new projects, but zero on maintenance.

- Ramdas Naik

● Let old world charm remain

No food kiosk please. All we need is a green and calm atmosphere. Please let the old world charm be.

- Swaminathan Suresh

● Why is greenery destroyed?

Why are they destroying the greenery? It is this plan just to benefit politically-connected contractors?

- Vidya Sagar

● Design plan appears independent of context

What about 1. existing trees of the park
2. the site contours and hydrology
3. design integration of the gargantuan SWD
4. access context from neighbourhoods and Luz Church Road
5. erstwhile park activity of local community

To me, this design appears independent of context and these considerations

S. Ve. Shekher's theatre group marks golden jubilee

By Our Edit Team

Natakapriya, a Chennai-based theatre company, now headed by S. Ve. Shekher marked the milestone of its golden jubilee with a special event on January 20 at Narada Gana Sabha auditorium, Alwarpet.

The event also marked the milestone of staging seven thousand shows: Natakapriya is based in Mandavelipakkam.

Chief minister M. K. Stalin was the key guest at this event which seemed to have been got up more to host Stalin and highlight the chief minister's image than to have a well-curated jubilee show.

Shekher and his artistes later presented a snappy medley of excerpts from some of the plays Natakapriya has staged in the past.

National math Olympiad training camp held in P. S. Senior school

A national-level mathematics Olympiad training camp was held in P. S. Senior Secondary School from January 8 to 11. 33 students from different city schools in Chennai, Pondicherry and Andaman & Nicobar Islands region participated - after qualifying in the regional Mathematics Olympiad.

P. S. Senior hosted the camp and conducted the INMO exams on campus.

Dr. Revathy Parameswaran, principal of P. S. Senior is the regional co-ordinator for mathematics Olympiads. Students who qualify in INMO will participate in the national camp and become eligible for consideration to represent India at the International Math Olympiad.

The training was conducted by resource persons from CMI, students who had won medals in the International Olympiad in the previous years and experts from premier institutes, said a press release from P. S. Senior.

Ananya wins title at national school-level chess tourney

By Subha Dilip

Ananya Raman, a class 10 student of Vidya Mandir and a resident of Mylapore stood first in the national school-level chess championship (in the under 17 girls category), held at Kakinada from January 17 to 21.

Ananya has been playing chess from the age of six. With the encouragement from family and friends, she started taking professional coaching and has won several state and district-level championships. Recently, she won medals under different categories at the Western Asia Chess championship held in Sri Lanka.

Her family says that Ananya not only enjoys playing chess but also teaches her neighbours and friends the basic nuances of the game, says Nandini Raman, Ananya's proud mother, who works as a product manager at Oracle.
