VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

My dad introduced me to newspapers. When I was seven years old.

He would buy 'The Mail' at a hawker stall on his way back home from work. The pages were all mine - after he read what interested him.

The comics were popular in this evening newspaper (which reached the muffsil and places like Kolar Gold Fields and the Nilgiris hills the next day) but I devoured all the city news that mattered. Perhaps, this was my first introduction to the city that has been home since I was three.

The Mail's office was 100 metres from where we resided.

I began to wander to those gates. Read the headlines on its promo banners stuck on display boards on its walls. And get a distant look of its offices; I never got to step inside though I sent and got published stuff in that lovely evening. When I was 20.

Now, these pavements were also the places where we enjoyed many hours of out teen life. Where we stood and lingered on samosas and chai at the popular Irani. Where we window-shopped the jeans that Elsons sold. Where we sat on railings behind the bus stops and chatted after early dinner.

On Sundays, the pavement off Mount Road, from office of The Mail to the Buhari hostel end made for a nice, long walk. We bumped into friends, families we knew and strangers too.

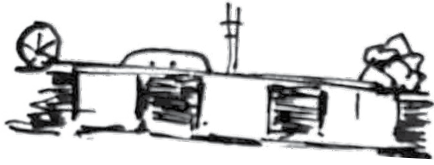

Pavements today do not allow that kind of life.

The Supreme Court recently said that the right to walk unhindered on pavements is a fundamental right.

The times I have walked alongside the Alwarpet flyover, off C. P. Ramaswamy Road, I have marvelled at how a four feet wide pavement was reduced to a four inches wide one. Today, there is nothing of it.

So I asked our photographer Madhan Kumar to start recording what some of the pavements in the Mylapore zone look like today. You may want to suggest one or two sidewalks which make fascinating study.

I recall that at one point, one side of the section of R. K. Mutt Road, south of the Mandaveli MTC bus terminus junction sported at least four or five food hawkers, who cooked hajjis and fried rice on stoves mounted on this busy pavement. And I wondered at what the scene could be if one of those stoves went up in flames or the cylinders burst.

Errors in street sign boards

I saw this spelling on the Kutchery Road sign board recently. Such errors are seen elsewhere too. GCC must have a database of street/road names with the proper spellings and use them in cases like sign boards.

Public Library in Mandaveli; access bad, cramped space

The public library located off Mandaveli market is housed in a cramped place and access for elders and children is difficult. The stairs are steep and senior citizens find it very difficult to use them. There is no separate children's wing.

The space is inadequate and not conducive for relaxed reading of Tamil novels. No facility for drinking water or rest room. We request Local Library Authority to address these issues.

ABM Avenue is a Bus Route Road. But condition is pathetic

When I am on ABM Avenue in R. A. Puram now-a-days, I am reminded of the poem "The Charge of the Light Brigade" by Tennyson, especially the lines - Cannon to right of them, Cannon to left of them, Cannon in front of them. Here, the word cannon can be replaced by 'ditches, potholes, rubble, construction material...'. All thanks to TANGEDCO and Metro Water and such agencies. This is a busy Bus Route Road (BRR) and its condition is bad.

Congrats, Headmistress Janaki Gururajan

Congratulations to Janaki Gururajan, the new HM of Lady Sivaswamy Girls School. I am an old student of the school - 1950 batch. I served as a teacher in the same institution till 1964. Perhaps I may be the oldest!

Singer Vani Jairam was my student. Sarojini Varadappan (former chief minister Bhaktavathsalam's daughter) was one of the many illustrious 'old' students of this school

Inappropriate Word

Refer to your page 1 photo caption in Mylapore Times last week, regarding the election of students at Rosary Matriculation Higher Secondary School, San Thome. The term Student Pupil Leader appears to be inappropriate, as both student and pupil convey the same meaning. School Pupil Leader may be a more appropriate term

Joseph Dhanraj won the Christmas Crib contest organised by Our Lady of Guidane Church in R A Puram during the 1996 Christmas season. Dhanraj has topped the competition three times in a row.

Theme, aesthetics and realism were the criteria for the competition. Dhanraj is a qualified civil engineer, and he used his skills to construct a shed with brick and hay. Beauty parlour inside New Woodlands hotel (Jan. 25, 1997)

By Chitra Sivakumar

For beautician Veda Vasudevan, the recent music season was a busy period, with musicians and rasikas availing her services at the New Woodlands Hotel on Dr. Radhakrishnan Salai. She runs her parlour in T. Nagar, but her Mylapore clients wanted her to expand to their area. She was happy that the hotel management offered her space for The Woodlands Parlour. Having a presence in the hotel helps because marriage parties automatically come to her for bridal makeup. Hotel guests also patronise her parlour.

Arch. students create prize-winning design (Jan. 25, 1997)

By Chitra Sivakumar

Mylaporeans Bhavna, Annalakshmi and Sarojini presented a design for a centre for performing arts, a kalakendra, at a state-level convention held at the Hindustan School for Architecture. While SRM students got the coveted first prize, the Mylapore girls, who collaborated with their friends, Swetha and Deepa, were placed second.

Sewage overflow in Chitrakulam zone

By Our Edit Team

Residents of South Mada Street are complaining about sewage overflow from an outlet close to Krishna Park Lodge located on the Chitrakulam - Mada Street junction in Mylapore.

V. Vasudevan has written to say that untreated sewage water from the entrance to this lodge is continuously flowing out onto the street and stagnating on the road.

He says that this sewage water creates a direct risk of waterborne diseases and affects movement of people in what is a busy shopping and temple zone.

He says that this has created an unhygienic condition and wants Metrowater's local unit engineers to address it.

Kauvery Hospital now has latest facility to treat heart rhythm disorders

By Our Edit Team

Kauvery Hospital says it has launched the world's most advanced Pulsed Field Ablation (PFA) programme in Tamil Nadu, -a significant milestone in the treatment of heart rhythm disorders (arrhythmias).

To mark the launch, leading international electrophysiology experts from the United States visited Chennai and collaborated with the Kauvery Hospitals team to initiate the PFA programme and support the first procedures.

Pulsed Field Ablation (PFA) is a next-generation treatment for heart rhythm disorders, particularly atrial fibrillation (AF), one of the most common cardiac arrhythmias.

Unlike conventional ablation techniques that use heat (radiofrequency ablation) or extreme cold (cryoablation), PFA uses precisely controlled electrical pulses to selectively target and eliminate the cells responsible for abnormal heart rhythms.

This process, known as electroporation, enables targeted treatment of affected heart tissue while minimising impact on surrounding structures.

Kauvery Hospitals' has also launched the Heart Rhythm Package - a specially designed, affordable evaluation programme aimed at enabling early diagnosis and expert care for patients experiencing symptoms such as palpitations, breathlessness, dizziness, unexplained fatigue, or episodes of rapid heartbeat.

Chennai Metro does listen. To suggestions

By Baskar Seshadri

When Chennai Metro (CMRL) shut off the Luz Circle zone for access towards all sides, their senior officers assured people that pathways would be created for simple access to both sides.

But it never happened. On the other hand, a parking bay formed and the load here created chaos in the Rangaswamy Studio area.

Persistent pleas have had some positive effects. CMRL engineers are listening.

CMRL contractors had erected a large structure which looked like a barricade that became a hindrance to both commercial people and shoppers in this Kutchery Road side. (Shown in the photo used here)

This barricade had been erected in front of Penguin Xerox shop. After online complaints, this obstruction has been removed, making access easy for people / shoppers.

1976 batch S.S.L.C. of Raja Muthiah High School celebrate 50 years of friendship

By Our Edit Team

On May 3, a group of members of the 1976 batch S.S.L.C. of Raja Muthiah High School, R.A.Puram celebrated their golden jubilee reunion. They met at The Mylapore Club, Luz

They had invited their teachers to this event and honored them.

“We took turns to share memories of campus life,” said K. Nagarajan, an alumni and resident of 6th Main Road, R. A. Puram

On the request of the school management, they arranged for all the blackboards of the school freshly-painted and donated a couple of ceiling fans.

A Jackfruit Tree That Carries 45 Years of Family Memory

By Shanthi Seshadri

Tucked inside a home in Krishnapuri, R.A. Puram stands a palaa maram that is more than just a tree — it is a living thread connecting a Chennai family to their roots in Innambur, a small village near Kumbakonam.

Planted over 45 years ago from a seed brought from their native village, the jackfruit tree has rewarded the family with fruit for four decades now. Each season, it bears 20 to 30 chakkai — raw and ripe — that have found their way into family celebrations and, with quiet reverence, into the ‘srartham’ of the family’s grandparents.

At the heart of this story is Chellammal Ramaswamy, who watches over the tree with a devotion that is almost maternal. Every morning she steps out to inspect it, reading the fruit the way only a lifetime of familiarity allows — knowing, almost instinctively, which one is ready to be cut.

The jackfruit tree is not alone in this garden.

It stands alongside two equally cherished neighbours — a Banganapally mango tree, sweet beyond compare, and a banana tree.

Together, they form the Mukkani — the beloved Tamil trio of mango, jackfruit, and banana — fruits that hold deep spiritual significance in South Indian culture and are celebrated for their natural sweetness. Few city homes can claim such a blessing growing quietly in their backyard.

Those interested in fresh chakkai from this garden may reach Chellammal Ramaswamy at 8939358384.

‘Veena’ Gayathri has idlis at Amma Unavagam

By Our Edit Team

On June 3 morning, saraswathi veena prodigy and vidushi, E. Gayathri got into her car and headed to R. A. Puram.

She wanted to have breakfast outside.

The celebrated artiste who was vice-chancellor of TN Dr. J. Jayalalithaa Music and Fine Arts University, says she doesn't have a formal breakfast save for consuming some eco-juices.

But that morning a thought popped up.

She thought of ‘Amma’.

The car slowed down near the MRTS station of Greenways Road. Gayathri stepped out and walked into the spruced up Amma Unavagam here.

The colourfully dressed staff welcomed her and she ordered a plate of idlis. She was provided a chair; but she opted to stand and eat at the dining counter, as others do.

This was her tribute to the ‘amma’ she had known closely.

A video of this ‘Amma Unavagam’ morning posted on the artiste’s social media page went viral and is still drawing people to it.

There were a few nasty comments too - wondering why a top artiste needed to dine at an unavagam neat for the needy.

But Gayathri has remained calm. And continues to post interesting Reels.

P. S. : Following the Reel on Gayathri’s visit, the staff at this Unavagam have been questioned, hauled up - asked how they allowed videos to be shot. So Mylapore Times could not shoot photos here.

BROWN & BARE. ONCE A GREEN PARK.

This is an update on the work being carried on in the 'redevelopment' of Nageswara Rao Park

By Our Edit Team

Four weeks ago, we went around the long-delayed redevelopment of Nageswara Rao Park in Luz to record the state of work.

A few days ago, we revisited the park.

The stark progress, perhaps the only one, is steady work on the boundary wall, part mortar, part metal.

● RIBBON SEATING - the core structure was completed long ago. The inner area looks cleaned. Mud all around.

● INTERACTIVE SPACE - the only progress evident is the mortar circular structure around the giant peepul tree. The metal beams to support the roof are still being fixed.

● OPEN AIR THEATRE - the area earmarked for this, is still not developed. You see only large mounds of earth.

● WATER BODY - There are two evidently. But bone dry, yet to be formally created

● WALK PATHWAYS - more stretches have been developed but in parts. In some spaces, they are narrow - not comfortable for 3/4 people to walk shoulder to shoulder.

● SPORTS COURT - no progress this far - floor ready, posts fixed days ago.

VOICES OF PARK USERS

Despite the inconvenience caused by the re-development at the park, some people continue to come by. We spoke to three people.

SARASWATHI / Alwarpet

"I use the free gym facility for women here. But walking around is difficult because work is going on all over"

M. DEVARAJ / Teynampet

"I am here for my daily walk on the advice of my doctor. The park provides a good space for exercise but the ongoing renovation work has made walking inconvenient."

PONNUSWAMY / Mylapore

"I used to come here daily to complete my 10,000 steps target of exercise but I am disappointed that the renovation work is still going on."
