STATE-FUNDED PHARMACIES. DRUGS COST LESS

'Muthalvar Marundhagams' (chief minister's pharmacies) have been opened in the Mylapore zone following the launch by Tamil Nadu chief minister M. K. Stalin of hundreds of pharmacies across the state on February 24.

These pharmacies offer generic medicines at costs that are far less than those sold at other pharmacies.

They also stock medical needs like first aid and basic medical accessories. Pain-killers, medicines to treat diabetes, blood pressure and common ailments are stocked.

We checked out the small pharmacy on Pughs Road, which runs off from Greenways Road towards the Adyar river and has a large population of middle and low-middle sections of the community here.

There were two staff here. The display racks had a good stock of medicines. The pharmacy is open 10 am to 8 pm.

There are two more pharmacies of this kind - one is located in the Sri Anjaneya Temple campus in Alwarpet, off Luz Church Road and the other is located in CIT Colony.

A ECO-PRODUCT FOR YOUR PLANTS

If you have potted plants on your balcony or terrace or own a small garden, you may want to buy this bio-enzymes mix that will nourish the plants.

The product is being produced by a small group of women based at the Women's Indian Association office Greenways Road, near the MRTS station.

They were trained in this process by a professional and have taken it on themselves to run a business.

Devika, the team leader, says that sales have been steady since the launch. And since it takes time to prepare the bioenzyme, they take orders and ask customers to be patient.

If you want to buy this product, call the WIA office at 24938907.

Design of pets-friendly park in Alwarpet made public. But owners of pets raise some issues

By Our Edit Team

The first design of a Pets-friendly Park of Chennai Corporation to be created in the place of the D'Monte Colony park in Alwarpet has been put out. The park is located off TTK Road in the middle of an abandoned colony.

A social media post showed professionals explaining the design of the park to the Mylapore MLA, Dha Velu and to the local ward councillor, Saraswathy

This project was mooted last year but was put in the freezer.

The intention of setting up such a park was to draw people who have pets like dogs to a space where they could walk them around and let the dogs have some playtime.

The design for the pets-friendly park shows a dogs shelter zone and a pets play area.

The standard design of a park remains – with walkways, water and toilet zones, kids play area and gazebos, besides landscaped areas in the park.

Mylapore MLA, Dha Velu said that the park will be open to owners of pets and to other people.

But people who welcome the idea of a pets park and own pets have some questions to share –

- Will there be a trained pets trainer / manager to keep an eye on dogs and the people who bring them to this park?

- What secure measures will be in place in such a park?

- What is the function of a dogs' shelter as shown in the design?

- Is it prudent to allow people of the area who want to walk, unwind or sit and converse inside such a park or must the park be one exclusively for pets (and their owners)

VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

Palani Kumar is a professional photographer and his work has been acknowledged and won him some prestigious awards. His work for PARI (People's Archive of Rural India) is hugely significant.

Palani has another side to him. He trains young boys and girls in our city's north zone and in the districts of our state, in the basic skills of photography.

Why does he do that?

He hopes that these boys and girls who may continue to pursue photography will shoot and document life around them; something that is rarely done even by mainstream media, be it print, TV or digital.

And if some of them can use the skills to get assignments and help them earn some decent money, life is going to be good.

This season, Palani has planned two workshops. One is to be in north Chennai and another is Ramanathapuram district, down south. Clearly, he intends to share his skills in places where hardly any effort is made to reach out to curious, creative minds and where opportunities are very limited.

Palani has found that managing his goals is not easy. He has to own or hire cameras for the workshops. And the youths who master the skills and wish to accept orders for shooting social functions or weddings or campus events which can earn them decent money, are asking Palani for second-hand cameras at low cost.

Now, even second-hand cameras cost a bit. Prices are around Rs.22,000 / Rs.25,000. And Palani has not had patrons who can lend a hand.

I have followed Palani's work and his journey for sometime. And I really appreciate his vision of enabling youths from disadvantaged communities to learn a creative skill and use it to document life that hardly gets noticed.

Recently, we got some like-minded people to raise funds which could help Palani buy a few second-hand cameras and feel good on the eve of his workshops. When these cameras were his possession, Palani lent one to a young girl in Pulianthope who was his student and she has begun using it almost every day. Shooting life around her neighbourhood and looking for assignments that can fetch her some money.

Sharing out skills locally can create some magic. If the effort goes to cover children or youth who just do not get the opportunities that you and I have had. Craftwork, art, photography, stitching, electronics . . . The summer holidays are perhaps a good time to organise local camps and specially invite children who are other the other side of the line.

Was there a need for temple for Mahaperiyava?

As a follower of Mahaperiyava, I wonder whether constructing a temple for him is right. Mahaperiyava himself did not get temples erected for the many Sankaracharyas who lived before him.

I doubt whether Mahaperiyava would have agreed to such a proposal if he was alive. I honestly feel the present premises could have been used for performing upanayanam and other similar functions. The present Sankara-madam could have been rebuilt to make it more spacious and a library for Hindu scriptures could have been developed. .

Let Nageswara Rao Park be neat and green

The ideas for redesigning the Nageswara Park is disquieting. All we need is a tidy park, lots of plants / trees and walkways properly paved.

There are a few who play badminton and some people train kids in silambam. All these are done unobtrusively and are welcome to the dynamic atmosphere of the park. Let there not be other extra activities in the park.

High broadcast audio levels affect students

There was a temple kumbhabhishekam at Shanmugapuram, R. A. Puram on Feb 23.

The festivities and the homam went on beyond 10pm and the audio levels on speakers was too high. With students writing their Board exams, this should have been kept under check.

MYLAPORE REWIND

This column carries excerpts from Mylapore Times, 1995 onwards. This week, we focus on May & June, 1995

Acute water shortage in some parts of East Abhiramapuram (June 3-9, 1995)

Residents of seven houses in the western end of East Abhiramapuram 2nd Street said they were suffering from acute water shortage. They said they had made two representations to the Metrowater headquarters and to the local office. There was temporary relief when the local office arranged for water in the mornings. After a while, water began to be supplied at 3 am. The residents said they could not use bore well water because of its high iron content.

Chess tourney to celebrate 100 years of Iyer's legacy (June 3-9, 1995)

By R. Meera

A chess tourney was conducted to commemorate the birth centenary of Dharmakesari Solar K. Subramanya Iyer, considered the father of chess promotion in the city. Chandra Ramani, his granddaughter, organised the tournament, which had 270 entries. Chandra said that had it not been the summer holidays, the number of entries would have been higher. In the 1930s, Iyer built Solar House, a two-storied house on South Mada Street, Mylapore, at Rs. 30,000. Solar House was his residence and a centre for fostering chess coaching.

K. Subramanya Iyer

Students shine in Plus Two exams (May 27-June 2, 1995)

Two students from the Lady Sivaswamy Girls Hr. Sec. School scored state ranks in the Plus Two exams. While H. Uma Maheswari made a mark in nutrition and child care, student Rattanangi took the high note in Indian music. Rosary Matriculation School had a 99% pass percentage, with two Math centums, three Commerce tons and three distinctions in Accountancy.

Vijay Siva and Sanjay Subrahmanyam attend music workshop (June 3-9, 1995)

By S. Janaki

A summertime Carnatic music workshop organised by Narada Gana Sabha and Sunaada Trust, run by Prameela Gurumurthy, concluded at the sabha. Musician and scholar S. Rajam was the director of the workshop. Talented youngsters Vijay Shiva, Sanjay Subrahmanyam and Varalakshmi Rajagopalan were among the 13 participants at the workshop. They were taught 15 new compositions and also received tips on voice culture.

Mylapore Telephone Exchange develops useful software (June 3-9, 1995)

The practice of tapping into the use of computerised subscribers' data, ushered in by the Mylapore Telephone Exchange, is to be adopted by the Mambalam and Anna Nagar exchanges. The software for this was developed at the Mylapore Exchange. This will help monitor the 16,000 phone lines in the jurisdiction, said Divisional Engineer Jyoti Sankar.

Bhairav Mushti is a form of self defence (May 27-June 2, 1995)

Epicentre in East Abhiramapuram 3rd Street, offers training in Bhairav Mushti, a form of self-defence. This technique does not rely on power or physical strength. Students of any gender, age and physical condition may learn it. The technique includes evasions, striking of vital points in the opponent's body and breaking the opponent's balance.

Kutti place in R. A. Puram for idiyappams and gravy

By Preetha K.

Are idiyappams your favourite? Try this new place on Lazarus Church Road. It is called Mr Idiyappam.

Started in late December by three friends – Saleem Malik, Umar Faruk and Mohamed Shafeek, this outlet is open from 4 to 10 pm. Bejo soup and pachai payaru payasam are available in the mornings from 11 a.m. “We make idiyappams out of roasted flour and we charge

Rs 20 for a set of three. Gravies to go with the idiyappam have to be bought separately.

We have channa gravy, vegetable stew and coconut milk to offer,” says Shafeek. A 250 ml serving of channa gravy costs Rs 45 and vegetable stew costs Rs 50.

Mr Idiyappam also serves nutty badam milk and rose milk. Desserts like sheer khurma, mutanjil and karuppu kavuni arisi halwa are also available. Dry fruits and nuts are other products on sale.

“We don’t add artificial colours and use only high-quality products.

I am particular that we retain the taste of home-made food,” says Umar Faruk. At this food joint, seats are limited.

Many prefer to just stand outside and tuck in; for them, idiyappams make a nice evening ‘tiffin’.

Mr. Idiyappam will soon be available on Swiggy and Zomato, said Umar.

Home delivery in the shop’s neighbourhood is provided for orders above Rs 250.

Mr Idiyappam is at No.18, Lazarus Church Road, R. A. Puram. Ph: 9840666697

Computer Courses (basic) for youth senior citizens. free

This information is for economically weak teens /youths who can benefit from having the skills in the use of computers. And for senior citizens who wish to master basic skills. Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan’s Gandhi Institute of Computer Education and Information Technology Centre at its Mylapore campus on East Mada Street, Mylapore offers courses that cover MS-Office, basics in Tally and in DTP.

Four classical dance concerts were held on February 21 evening inside Sri Kapaleeswarar Temple, Mylapore to mark Shivaratri. The event was organised by the Association of Bharatanatyam Artistes of India (ABHAI),

The evening's programme began with a performance by Malini Balaji, this was followed by a short solo recital by Sushama Ranganathan, then the duo, Jayakrishan and Sreedevi Ambadi performed.

Finally, the students of guru Krishnakumari Narendran presented a thematic recital, with a dozen dancers featured in it. This photo is of the final concert.

St. Bede's School students highlight in public dangers of drugs

By Our Edit Team

Students of St. Bede's Anglo Indian Hr. Sec. School, San Thome led a public campaign this week to speak against use of drugs and raise awareness of the dangers that drugs posed to young people.

Held this past week, the event began with the formation of a 'human chain' of the members of the Scouts community of the school on the pavement alongside the school campus.

Fr. Y. L. Irudayaraj, school headmaster and Fr. Sagayaraj Devadoss, rector and correspondent, addressed the students. Also present was Fr. Lourdusamy Susai.

For the next 30 minutes, students took turns to shout slogans and hold up a variety of placards and banners, all made by them.

All this took place even as the morning peak hour traffic rolled down San Thome High Road.

The school said that over 300 students drawn from the groups of Scouts, Cubs, Junior Red Cross, and Green Army took part in this event.

Classical dance classes: for children, adults

By Our Edit Team

Mansi Sakhi School of dance is offering Bharatanatyam dance classes for beginners. Run by Manasa Vijaychander, the two-year old school offers in person as well as online classes.

Mansi

Manasa said she was trained in Bharatanatyam and Kathak and holds a masters in performing arts - Bharatanatyam degree from Jain University, Bangalore.

"Though I have been trained in both Kalkshetra and Vazhuvoor styles, at the centre, we do not stick to one style," says Manasa.

Basic level Bharatanatyam classes are held in C. P. Koil street, Mylapore and also at Srinivasa Gandhi Nilayam, Ambujammal Street, Alwarpet. A new batch is to start soon - for children and for adults.

There will be eight classes per month. While there are evening batches for children, adults can opt for morning or weekend batches.

For more details contact Mansi Sakhi School of Dance, No.5/2/1, C P Koil street, Mylapore. Ph: 9790996271

The Indian Fine Arts Society hosted its annual Thyagaraja aradhana on February 22 at Ethiraj Kalyana Mandapam, TTK Road, Alwarpet. Some 50-plus artistes participated in it.

Free, short camp for women to learn basics of self defence

By Our Edit Team

This is for Mylapore women who want to learn some basic self-defence skills at a space in Mandaveli.

The All India Boufuu-kai Isshinryu Karate Association & Rotary Club of East R. A. Puram is conducting a free camp to make women aware of simple self-defence techniques.

The event is being held to mark International Women's Day. It is to be held on March 9, a Sunday, 10 a.m. onwards for about 90 minutes.

The training camp will be led by senior karate master Shihan A R Sundar who is a 8th Dan Black Belt holder.

Venue of camp: No:226, 2nd floor, Ramakrishna Mutt Road, Mandaveli (above Canara Bank)

The organisers say that previous training in martial arts is not required and that women of any age can participate and learn the basics.

Luz church hosts event for children

Children who attend catechism classes at Our Lady of Light Church in Luz got together for an annual meet-up, which was held on February 22, in the church campus.

The chief guest was Fr. Raymond.

Some 100 students took part. The children staged skits and dances. Prizes were given to winners in competitions and exams were held earlier.

The event was organised by the parish priest Fr Bernard Lawrence, his assistant Fr Justian Driviam and the catechism class teachers.

Remembering music guru P. S. Narayanaswamy

Every year, the sishyas of late Carnatic music guru P. S. Narayanaswamy host an event to celebrate his music and his scholarship.

This year, the PSN Disciples' Foundation held that event on February 24 at Raga Sudha Hall in Luz.

Young mridangam artiste, B. Subramani was given a fellowship. Papanasam Ashok Ramani performed at the main concert.

THE NIGHT OF SHIVARATRI

People began to join the many streams of devotees headed to Sri Veleeswarar Temple and to Sri Kapaleeswarar Temple as early as 7.45 p.m. for the Shivaratri celebrations which began on February 26.

That hour, traffic began to pile up outside the temple on South Mada Street. A hawker here said that she had not seen such large crowds for Shivaratri in recent years.

The scenes were similar at Sri Karaneeswarar Temple and at Sri Theerthapaleeswarar on Dr Natesan Road in Triplicane, a temple that completes the Sivan temples circuit of Mylapore.

All temples had made arrangements to streamline the huge inflow of people and there was order inside most temples.

While at some temples, people handed over milk sackets to volunteers to contribute for the abhishekam, at others, volunteers took turns to offer light food and refreshments at counters located on temple campuses.

If you were in these temple zones this Wednesday night, you may have also seen small groups of people undertaking their annual tour of the seven Sivan temples in the greater Mylapore zone.

The pleasant night and light traffic made their 'payanam' for Shivaratri an easy one.

Mylapore Post Office promoting savings scheme which helps a girl's education

By Our Edit Team

There was a buzz at the Mylapore Post Office on Kutchery Road, Mylapore on February 21; the staff here had to promote a unique savings scheme created for children.

The Selvamagal Semippu Scheme was introduced in 2015 under the 'Beti Bachao - Beti Padhao' campaign for the welfare of girl children in the country. And post offices have to drive this scheme.

The Mylapore Post Office, with many others in the city and outside, is creating some buzz about the scheme to draw more people to join this scheme.

An account under this scheme can be opened for girl children below 10 years of age by the parent or a legal guardian with minimum of Rs.250 and maximum of Rs.1.5 lakhs per financial year.

The scheme offers the highest interest rate of 8.2% per annum.

The deposits made under this scheme provides tax benefit upto Rs.1.5 lakh per financial year under Sec 80C of Income Tax Act.

The account allows 50% of withdrawal at the age of 18 years or after passing 10th standard - for higher education purposes.

The account reaches maturity after 21 years from the date of opening of the account.

Post Office staff said that people who wish to open an account under this scheme may approach the special counter which functions at the post office and get things done in a jiffy.

New chess academy offers coaching to children

By Our Edit Team

Mylapore Chess Academy has opened on Musiri Subramaniam Road recently. It intends to coach children.

The place was formally opened by Aarthi Ramesh, India Woman Grand Master.

Children above the age of four years can join the chess classes here, said 57-year-old N. Meenakshi, the promoter of this chess academy.

The centre has two certified chess coaches as of now and classes will be conducted on Mondays and Thursdays from 6 to 8 in the evening.

Said Meenakshi, "My son Swaminathan is a chess player.

I had been his coach in his formative stages. I had taken a break and now I am back to coaching and playing."

Contact N.Meenakshi at 42658542 / 9962682794

The Academy is at 15/8, Musiri Subramaniam Road, Mylapore.
