Fuel crisis: field notes

By Our Edit Team

Field notes from the Mylapore zone following the LPG / fuel crisis.

< Though petrol bunks are crowded, there is order and no sign of panic-filling. At some bunks, bikers check in at dawn and long queues form. At some places, since stocks were delayed, staff showed 'No Stock' sign.

< Major restaurants remove some food items on the menu. Those that need time to cook/fry. Diners are steady at all places.

Streetside snacks / food jointly affected. Some have shut down after LPG ran out and some re-open when they get a cylinder. Tea/coffee shops with limited gas in a quandary.

< People queue at local LPG stores to get refills. They bring along empty cylinders. But only those who are due for re-fill get one. Lorry supplies to depots continue.

< Caterers supplying daily meals to families / seniors make menu changes. Roasted/ fried food is off, boiled / steamed food included. But some are running out of LPG stock.

< Stores report 'no stock' of branded induction stoves. Premium brands sold out, less-known brands available and these too are selling fast.

VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

After ages, I got close to the Indian Army. Courtesy, ex-Major friend Narayanan who had invited me to the OTA on many occasions.

Some 350-plus officer cadets at Officers Training Academy stepped out with honours last Saturday, after their back-breaking one-year-long course. This spectacle was grand and warm. It started on the parade ground as dawn broke and as it unfolded, the marching and the music of the band got me. There were at least 2000 people; families of the new officers and friends and Indian Army members.

We adjourned for a lovely breakfast to the grand Yodha Mess, were introduced to the commandant of the OTA, Lt Gen. Michael Fernandez and sat on the grass to enjoy the emotional tradition at OTA - the the pipping ceremony. Where parents and cadets shed tears, hugged each other, shot photos and stood out proud.

A morning well-spent inside a heritage zone that goes back to the 18th century, of colonial times when the English, suffocated inside Fort St George, created a cantonment in St Thomas Mount.

Major Narayanan has taken a bunch of college students around the OTA on a Fam-Tour; hoping some of them may sign up for this course. He plans to do this as an annual initiative. Just what we need for our young people.

Days later, friend Sheila told me how the school children of a private middle school where she teaches spoken English, enjoyed themselves at the Birla Planetarium. A new world opened up to them, Sheila said. Next year, she has plans to moot a trip to Anna Centenary Library.

Our children and youth need early exposure. And you may be in a position to do it. Organise an 'industrial' visit. If you work in a factory, you may want to arrange a tour for them. In our school days, they used to take us to the Britannia biscuits factory! You could ask a school group over to an IT company. Or you could play host to a science exhibition your organisation is holding.

A Poonga, a butterfly park, a factory, a polytechnic . . opens new worlds to school kids who rarely get such opportunities. Visits light fires. If you are in a position to do so for the school down your road, please work on it.

TANGEDCO does 'piece-meal fix' to burning cables in Dr. Ranga Road

On Tuesday, March 10, at about 2.30 p.m. the power cable line that runs on top of a rough pavement on Dr Ranga Road caught fire. It was put out by local people. This is a regular occurrence.

TANGEDCO staff attend to the issue by repairing and re-joining the cable, which runs all along this side of the busy Dr Ranga Road. They are not ready to work on the permanent fix to this issue. This is a safety hazard for the people.

The cables run all over the place, exposed. This has been the case when a new drain was laid many months ago and cables in the earth were dislodged and thrown around. TANGEDCO's local staff blame the state agencies for the state of affairs.

- Arvind Manickam

Ensure road near Saibaba Temple is hawkers-free

The drive undertaken by GCC to clear the environment in front of Saibaba Temple is commendable. With many buses on this road and the encroachments on both sides of the road, students and pedestrians faced dangers. I wish the cleared road remains like this for a good time.

- Revathy Sekar

Clear bunks on Canal Bank Road

There are illegal bunks on the entire stretch of Canal Bank Road for around 8 kms each side. These must be cleared.

- S. Krishnamurthy

Space below Mandaveli MRTS line is illegal cattle shed zone

The space below the MRTS elevated line in Mandaveli is a neglected area. While some other areas below the MRTS railway bridge look great with parks and walking area, in Mandaveli, the space is a cattle depot.

We hear the area was originally meant for developing a park but has been abused for other purposes. It has become a nuisance zone to the residents in this area. Already, Canal Bank Road is abused by auto mechanics who dump autos and do tinkering and painting work on vehicles. GCC officials should clear the space. There is a GO that cattle cannot be reared within Corporation limits.

- K. J. S. Narayanan

Regarding Alwarpet Benefit Fund: help!

I happened to read a report in Mylapore Times, dated July 7, 2022, about Alwarpet Benefit Fund Ltd. I tried to get in touch with the company through the two landlines numbers that were provided in the report. Both numbers have been disconnected. Is there any way I can get in touch with the office?

Can your readers help?

- Narayan Swamy / 81237 96402

Clear bunks all along Warren Road

The demolition of shops off Sai Baba Temple is a good move. Also, clearing the hawkers here. Let them do the same in the entire stretch of Warren Road

- Krishnan Ganapathy

Post Office savings: unhelpful staff

Refer the report on Post Office savings drive. I find the staff least co-operative. Never put money in Post Office schemes. No online platform too.

MYLAPORE REWIND

This column carries excerpts from Mylapore Times, 1996 onwards. This week, we focus on September 1996.

Dacoity in Chitrakulam South Street (Sept 7, 1996)

On August 31, at around 7.30 pm, Chandra Suryanarayanan's daughter went to answer the doorbell and let her cousin in. She does not clearly remember what happened thereafter. Three men barged into their flat in Keshav Apartments on South Street, Chitrakulam. They told Chandra that the police were chasing them and asked her to keep quiet. Fearing for her children, she locked them inside the kitchen. One of them started pacing the drawing room.

Her mother, who was in one of the rooms, locked herself from the inside and shouted for help. A watchman in the neighbourhood came running to Chandra's apartment in B Block. At this, the men inside panicked and rushed out but not before taking away Chandra's thali, a cordless phone, a pager and a bronze plate. One of them hit Chandra when she resisted. She later recalled that one of them kept hurting himself with a knife and splashing the blood around. The police have arrested four men in connection with this.

The men were apprehended when they were threatening passersby at knifepoint near a food cart on Kutchery Road.

Mandaveli duo, Sridevi and Shantha, win Raj TV music contest (Sept 28, 1996)

By Chitra Sivakumar

Mandaveli residents Sridevi Padmanabhan and Shantha Sankaranarayanan won the first prize at the Ragam Sangeetham music competition hosted by Raj TV. They won cassettes worth Rs. 5,250. Sridevi has done her BA in Music at Queen Mary's College. A trained classical singer, she has been in the field for thirty years. She has won several prizes at music contests held by the Tamil Isai Sangam, The Madras Music Academy and several other institutions. She teaches vocal Carnatic music at her residence on Trustpakam South Street, Mandaveli.

Music contest winners Sridevi and Shantha

Over 200 phones blink in Kennedy Street (Sept 7, 1996)

Over 200 phone lines went dead on Kennedy Street for two days earlier in the week. The divisional engineer of Mylapore Telephones, S. Jyoti Shankar, said that TNEB's contract workers had damaged the line and that the rains had only made matters worse. This caused a major cable fault, he said. The lines were restored in the evening of the second day. The official further said that the proposal to transfer 3000 lines from the Anna Road Exchange has been put on hold until January or at least until after the rains.

Natakapiya to stage 3,500th show (Sept 14, 1996)

S. V. Shekher's Natakapiya will present its 3,500th show at The Music Academy hall on September 18. Chief Minister M. Karunanidhi will grace the occasion and present mementos to the artistes and technicians. G. K. Moopanam will release a special souvenir. Nalli Kuppuswamy Chettiar, along with senior theatre and stage actor V. Gopalakrishnan and senior journalist-politician Valampuri John, will honour the troupe.

Modern library opened in R. A. Puram

Study hall for students, section for children

By Baskar Seshadri

A modern library and study space was formally inaugurated in R. A. Puram recently by Mylapore MLA, Dha Velu. This is a CMDA project under the 'Muthalvar Padaipagam' programme of the state government. It has come up in the space where a district library stood. On Third Main Road, R. A. Puram

The ground floor is meant for the general public – to read. A variety of books, novels and magazines are available. The first floor section is dedicated for the study needs of students – especially for youth who prepare for the civil services, college admission and competitive exams.

There is a separate section for children, stocked with books suitable for them.

The whole area is air-conditioned and fitted with new furniture. There is still some civil work to be done in the complex.

For now, there is one librarian; staff are expected here in a week's time. Wheel-chairs are provided for the use of differently abled.

Open - 8 am to 11 am and from 4pm to 7.30 pm. Holiday on Fridays, second Saturdays and state-declared holidays.

Mahasamprokshana of Sri Vedantha Desikar Temple on Mar. 16 morning

The mahasamprokshana (kumbha-bishekam) of Sri Vedantha Desikar Temple is to take place on Monday, March 16 morning, from 9 to 10.30 a.m.

Rituals started on March 12 with the ankoorarpanam being conducted that evening. The yaaga salai rituals started on Friday evening.

Temple-church ties. For a saint's feast

By Our Edit Team

There is a long, long collaboration between Sri Kapali Temple, Mylapore and Our Lady of Guidance Church in R. A. Puram. An informal one.

For the church's annual celebration of the feast of saint Lazarus, the community here requests the temple to let it use seven carriages on which the decorated, illuminated images of Mary and some saints are mounted for the processions.

This feast draws its history from Catholic converts who settled in this part of R. A. Puram and organised this feast by themselves (it is still funded and managed by a Trust); members claim the 2026 feast celebrated in January this year was the 444th edition. In the old days, the organisers turned to the temple for help. That tradition is continued to this day.

MSV fans take selfies around street signboard

By Baskar Seshadri

Chief minister, M. K. Stalin recently renamed De Monte Road as M. S. Viswanathan Salai in San Thome in a video conference function.

MSV, as the world famous music director was called fondly (some called him Mellisai Man-nar too), has a huge number of fans around the world.

Since the street re-naming event, everyday, MSV fans have been visiting the street and shooting photos of the street name signboard and taking selfies too.

This street is always a busy one since it leads to a thickly inhabited area that leads to the Marina side. But the signboard corner is now the attraction for many people.

Remembering Mandaveli resident who cleaned houses

By Baskar Seshadri

Mandaveli resident S. P. Narasimhan was known among many Mylaporeans because he was called to houses and apartments to clean the rooms and washrooms too.

He passed away on January 30 and his customers got to know of his passing from obituary wall posters that were pasted locally.

Narasimhan would sit at the gate of the mosque on St Marys Road everyday, 7 a.m. onwards, waiting for customers of the day.

He was sincere in his work and charged a nominal amount – so his customers' circle grew and the work sustained him.

Though he fell ill, he continued working till about a few months ago when he had to remain indoors due to ill-health.

He lived in the Van-niampathi area, off Venkatakrishna Road, Mandaveli

Sri R. Sundara Swaminathan (14 July 1946 – 4 March 2026)

We fondly remember
Sri R. Sundara Swaminathan,
longtime resident of Kailas Flats,
R. A. Puram, who passed away peacefully in Chennai on 4 March 2026.

He lived life to the fullest and will be remembered for his fun-loving nature, positive outlook, and warm personality. A passionate reader and lifelong learner, he was widely respected for the thoughtful guidance and counsel he generously offered to family and friends.

He began his career with The Indian Express and later led operations at Sai Sriram Printers, where he oversaw the printing of several books on Sri Sai Baba, deepening his devotion and becoming a staunch devotee.

He played a key role in the rebuilding of his family temple in his native town of Saathanur and was also a co-founder of the Brahmin Samrakshana Trust (BST), reflecting his strong commitment to community service. He also greatly enjoyed travel and exploring new places.

*He is lovingly remembered by his wife
Smt. Seethalakshmi Sundar, daughter and son-in-law, son and daughter-in-law, four beloved grandchildren, and many relatives and friends.*

Shops alongside Sai Baba Temple demolished

By Baskar Seshadri

Civic workers demolished shops which were built alongside the campus of the Sai Baba Temple, Venkatesa Agraharam Street, Mylapore.

Madras High Court-appointed administrators, Justices P. N. Prakash and K. N. Basha gave these orders after they found, among the loads of mismanagement and corruption deals here, that the management of these shops also reeked of dark deals and their owners paid a pittance in rentals.

In September 2025, the management of the Sai Baba Temple and its allied operations was ordered to be dissolved by an order by the Madras High Court. Two retired judges took over the management and are assisted by their team – for an interim period

Focus on Women

Some events held in Mylapore zone to mark International Women's Day

1. The 25th edition of the Indian Oil - Duchess All Women Car Rally had the participation of 140 cars. It was flagged off at Hotel Savera by Vetri Selvakumar of IOC, Nina Reddy of Savera Hotel and actress Poornima Bhagyaraj

2. Latha of 'Yoga for Wellness' studio, Mandaveli opened the doors to women to appreciate the basics of yoga.

3. Nandalala Seva Samithi Trust honoured three women at an event held at Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan. They were Vidya Subramanian, Carnatic music artiste, Shiny Surendran, preventive health professional and sports nutritionist and P. Thilakavathi, the first female kattaikoothu artiste.

4. Norton Community & Cultural Association marked Women's Day with a string of motivational talks by Latha, Srividhya, Bagyatha, Srimathy, Latha and Malani. Children delighted the audience with songs. Games were conducted by Padma Sankaran and Nisha. Srimathy and Nisha, Soundar Rajan, Venkatraman, Pandian and Kishore lent their hand.

5. Members of the Sakambari Women's Group, Indira Nagar and its branch at R. A. Puram celebrated Women's Day and its silver jubilee at an event held in R. A. Puram. B. Radha, a director of Vikatan Group was the chief guest. Parimala Krishnamurthi of Indira Nagar Women's Association was the guest of honour. Donations were made to a physically challenged woman, a few charitable institutions and marginalised women workers. Dr. Raji Rao is the president of the group.

6. Women members of Fitness Paradise Gym, R. K. Mutt Road, Mylapore took part in a series of fitness competitions held at the gym. They were challenging and fun. Push-ups, pull-ups, Hula hoops and skipping kept women and teens engaged.

Courier vadu manga? Possible from Mada St.

At least three hawkers in Mylapore's Mada Streets now offer to ship vadu manga to people in the city and outside. They say they have been doing this for some years now for the season.

Rajeswari is one hawker who ships vadu manga. She has the vadu from Coimbatore, Madurai and Tiruchi, and prices vary.

She says clients can pay for the vadu and courier charges. "To many places in south India, delivery is done in 24 hours," she says. Her contact - +91 90030 78065.

Two other hawkers in this zone also offer to ship the vadu manga. They are -

Kavita - +91 88072 71897.
Susila - +91 88258 71012

Fuel crisis: Mylapore crematorium not affected

By Madhan Kumar

The fuel crisis has not affected operations at the crematorium in Mylapore.

Staff at this place located behind the campus of the TN Police headquarters / DGP's office said that they use gas and electricity for burning bodies brought here and that they do not expect any hiccups in the near future.
