In Nageswara Rao Park, historical plaques broken and dumped

A significant piece of the city's post-independence history has fallen victim to a careless renovation project. A marble commemorative plaque at the Nageswara Rao Park, dating back to 1949, was found severely damaged and discarded amidst construction debris in the park.

The plaque, which marks the park's official opening on October 20, 1949, now lies in pieces, its historical inscriptions cracked and obsured by yellow paint and concrete dust.

The damaged stone serves as a rare record of the region's political transition, bearing the name of P.S. Kumaraswami Raja, the then Premier of Madras.

It also lists several prominent officials of the era, including Ramaswami Naidu and the municipal commissioner C. Narasimham.

Residents and heritage enthusiasts have expressed outrage, noting that while renovation is meant to improve public spaces, the destruction of such tablets erases the tangible link between the modern city and its founding administrators.

A month ago, when the Mylapore MLA was told about the demolished pillars (there are two marker stones on two old pillars), he promised to look into it and said they stones were safe. That clearly was not a fact.

Heritage lovers want GCC's commissioner and superintending engineer of parks to intervene, locate both the stones, repair them, preserve them and ensure these are fitted into the new walls when work on park renovation closes.

Photos and report: T. Jaisakthivel

MLA'S RESPONSE

"Damaged stone safely kept. Don't worry. Definitely, this stone will be set again once we reopen the park".

VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

Do you ever recall the pandemic? And the impact it had on your life.

Perhaps you have your Covid story - some share it, some want it obliterated.

I have been looking at the Mylapore Times' reportage of that amazing time in our lives. And it makes us very proud of what we did, from our office, from homes and mostly in the field.

Perhaps, the best - the photos shot by Madhan Kumar; his 100 pictures will tell the Mylapore pandemic story, like nowhere else.

This morning, I chanced on a May 2021 report, featuring a photo of a postwoman walking down the streets of Mandavelipakkam, mask firmly in place, to deliver ordinary and Speed Post mail.

Parallely, I am taken back to a 2025 feature on postwoman Leela Kalaivani of Mandaveli Post Office.

An exceptional India Post staff who even reads a letter if the recipient cannot read well.

I remember this feature story for another reason. K. Akshita, then a P. S. Senior student, had signed up for our annual summertime program on the basics of journalism. She was keen and devoted but her school work bothered her. I encouraged her one day to follow up on a story she suggested after she visited the Post Office in Mandaveli. Do a profile of the postwoman, I said.

Akshita filed a 10-line report. Disappointed, I briefed her. Told her to cycle alongside Leela, jot down the kutti episodes and tell us the story. The work came out well. Leela and Akshita deserved it.

Local journalism, at the grassroots level provides fertile training ground for young people who want to experience life, to converse, to explore public spaces, to shoot pictures and videos, to write and write well. Facts, not fiction. No frills, just the story.

I am now inviting people who want to be part of the program for summer 2026 to sign up. (Details at www.mylaporetimes.com). This is serious stuff for serious, passionate people. Multi-tasking promised. With campaigning for the elections about to roll, trainees will be on to something special.

Sub-Registrar's Office badly maintained, minimal facilities

We want senior officers of TN's Registration department to make note. I had to visit the SRO, Mylapore located in K.B.Dasan Road, Alwarpet. The condition of SRO is bad. Often, the one lift does not work. Limited seats provided for the public in the waiting hall and many are broken. There is only one fan provided here. The stink of urine pervades the waiting hall. The ground floor is badly maintained - senior citizens are likely to slip. There are no proper parking facilities. This department earns huge revenue. It should ensure minimum comfort is provided to people.

Chennai Metro, please help!

Despite 'No Parking' and 'Tow Away Zone' signage, the entrance to Luz Ginza Apartments and Murthy Flats remains chronically congested. The apathy of on-site security and the lack of enforcement by Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) have turned this into a hotspot for heated disputes between residents and motorists. Can Chennai Metro act please?

- Letter writer wishes to be anonymous

Puzzling Photo

In Mylapore Times dated March 21, in a report on the Samprokshanam of Sri Vedanta Desikar Temple, the photo accompanying the report showed a temple gopuram with a Thengalai Tiruman instead of the Vadagalai Tiruman. Is this a case of a wrong gopuram accompanying the article or the intended change that has seen a previously Vadagalai Temple convert itself to a Thengalai Temple?

- Writer wishes to be anonymous

Editor's Note: The angle of the photo published also covered the gopuram of Sri Audikesava Perumal Temple.

Observations at Thiruvalluvar Temple

I went to the renovated Tiruvalluvar Temple recently - they have done a beautiful job. The new addition is Golden Lotus Pond (பொற்றாடமரை குளம்) set in a place where Valluvar is said to have had the arangetram of Thirukkural. As per history, the arangetram was done after a lot of hiccups with the help of Avvaiyar and the then Pandia king.

Three statues of Tiruvalluvar, Avvaiyar and the Pandia king are set around the pond. While they have written the names of Tiruvalluvar and Avvaiyar, the legend of the Pandia king does not mention his name, which is Ariyapadai Kadantha Nedunchezian. This may be written. There used to be a tree trunk covered with copper sheet near the well.. It is believed that Thiruvalluvar was born under that tree. But this tree trunk is missing - have they removed it?

MYLAPORE REWIND

This column carries excerpts from Mylapore Times, 1996 onwards. This week, we focus on September 1996.

Two Vinayaka Chaturthi processions from Mylapore (Sept. 21, 1996)

Traffic police have granted permission to two Vinayaka Chaturthi processions from the Mylapore area to merge with the main city procession on September 22, said Garudapathy, Traffic Inspector, Mylapore police station. The processions will include eight large idols of Pillayar, four each from Mylapore and Abhirampuram. They will be taken through TTK Road before they join the main procession at Dr. Radhakrishnan Salai. A 15-foot high idol, kept in front of Rasi store, a five-foot idol on display at the Vasantha Mandapam (Chitrakulam West Street), one from Valleswarar Koil on TSV Koil Street and a nine-foot idol from the Sai Baba temple will leave the Mylapore area. Idols from Bheemanna Garden Street (TTK Road junction), Dr. Ranga Road, Sringeri Mutt and D'Monte Colony comprise the group of idols from the Abhirampuram area.

Award for R. K. Nagar resident P. K. Parthasarathy (Sept. 7, 1996)

P. K. Parthasarathy, a resident of School View Road in R K Nagar, received the Vijayashree Award from the International Friendship Society and the Bharat Gaurav Award from the All India Society for Economic Forum for "enriching human life and outstanding achievements in the field of work". Parthasarathy has worked in perilous areas such as the East Pakistan border, where he went to make a survey for building roads. He also recalled crawling through leech-infested waters to escape point-blank firing when he went to inspect the flood embankment at Dhemaji in Assam.

Youngest Vicar-General marks 25 years in the service of God (Sept. 21, 1996)

Fr. Devotta

By V. Mangala Bhavani

Fr. Antony Devotta, the vicar-general of the Madras-Mylapore diocese, celebrates 25 years in the service of God. He was ordained a priest on May 27, 1971, by the late archbishop Rev. Arulappa. He became a parish priest in 1995. He went on to become the youngest vicar-general, second in line to the archbishop. He used to live on Kutchery Road in the 1950s. An alumnus of St. Bede's School in San Thome, Fr. Devotta chose this vocation because his family desired it, and he accepted it.

He recalled participating in a Mass on a Good Friday as a 12-year-old when he decided to become a priest.

Sruti special to celebrate MS' 81st birthday (Sept. 28, 1996)

Sruti, the magazine for music and dance from Alwarpet, has brought out a special feature on M S Subbulakshmi, a legend in her lifetime, to mark her 81st birthday. There are rare photos on the front and back covers, as also the centrespread.

The issue carries an interview of MS with vidushi Mani Krishnaswamy.

Obituary

One of India's top-ranking sports journalists, S. Thyagarajan, 85 years old, passed away March 23. He was a resident of Alwarpet.

Thyagu, as friends called him, retired in 2014, started his career with the 'Indian Express' newspaper in Madras in 1961 and switched over to 'The Hindu' the following year.

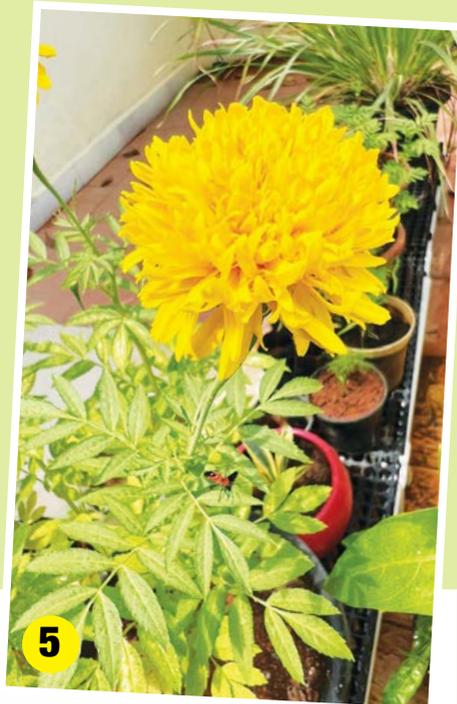

He served The Hindu newspaper with distinction for over half a century, his CV including covering six Olympics, nine Asian Games competitions and nine hockey World Cup tournaments besides several other international meets, reported sports journalist Partab Ramchand for the Mylapore Times when the Sports Journalists Federation of India honoured Thyagu with a special citation at his residence in Oct. 2024.

Though he could write with equal felicity on all sports, it was his writing on hockey that made him well known internationally. And, he reported even the matches of the city hockey league from the stands of the stadium in Egmore. He served on the committees of the International Hockey Federation (FIH) and the Asian Hockey Federation - AHF.

Thyagarajan was a former president of both SJFI and TNSJA (both sports journalists associations).

The family resides at No.2, Krishna Avenue, Chennai 600018. Ph: 9884261077

Elections 2026

Election buzz is heating up in Mylapore. On March 25 evening, AIADMK leader Edappadi Palaniswami prayed at Sri Kapali Temple and went around Mylapore - Mandaveli in an open van. Midway, he was joined by BJP's Tamilisai Soundararajan.

The NDA allies and their cadres were large in number, party flags dominating the streetscape.

BJP has been allotted Mylapore constituency where the sitting MLA is DMK's Dha. Velu.

Candidates of the DMK and of BJP will be known this weekend. NTK has named R. L. Arun. TVK will also name a candidate, we are told.

NAGESWARA RAO PARK SINGERS' SPECIAL MEET

Nageswara Rao Park Singers is a group which used to go on walks in the park.

One fine day, musician Ram Surender connected with walkers who were into aerobics and public speaking sessions here, noticed their music talents and bound them into a group. The nurtured voices presented a Christmas music programme that drew wider participation.

Now, 40 people form the group. On March 29, 10.30 a.m, members will meet at one corner of the park which is under renovation: these amateur voices and artists will be honoured by S. N. Surendar.

PANGUNI FEST 2026

Music, devotion, rituals and colour

By Our Edit Team

March 24 evening.

On North Mada Street, traffic police men and women, on their toes, shoo away hawkers and tolerate them on the sidewalks. A police inspector, enjoying a cup of hot coffee at a restaurant, gets a SOS call even as he tells us that every day, about 100 police staff are on duty on the streets and inside the temple. He rushes off - the family of a VIP has arrived at the temple and he has to be there.

Traffic slows down as workers give the final touch to a new restaurant, due to open the next morning. A senior man stops and says, "We are told AIADMK has a public rally tomorrow. Imagine the chaos here."

Music floated from all sides inside Sri Kapali Temple that evening to supplement the mood of the annual Panguni festival here.

At the far end of the Navaratri mantapam, odhuvar Sargurunathan, his colleagues and musicians sing at poetic pace, with a few people seated in meditation, soaking in.

In the eastern yard, off the saneeswarar sannidhi, on a decorated stage, a galaxy of nagaswaram and tavil artistes, a full complement, perform - music that suits this atmosphere. A few people choose to sit and listen but not for long. A junior artiste stands and records the recital. His senior nods to him, saying 'sit and shoot'.

The queue at the prasadam desk grew long as one man gently scooped some prasadam and dropped it in a dhonnai, his service for the day. A family gets two handfull and sits on the floor and relishes the rice.

Three fowls, donated to the temple, clucked a bit and found refuge between the temple furniture. Three young women, taking measured steps, followed each other, deep in prayer as they circumambulated the sannidhis.

Up above, on the eastern gopuram, bathed in illumination, ran up and down, design elements which signed off each cycle with 'Siva! Siva!' slogans in digital form, attracting lots of cellphone shoots by devotees who had looked up.

The evening was later set for the silver-plated chandra vahanam, posted near the nagaswaram stage, the kili vahanam and the annam vahanam, all polished and bright for the procession that would start after 8 p.m.

Much later, women water-washed the Sannidhi Street zone and the 16-pillar mantapam area and drew large kolams, a traditional welcome for the gods. Inside the temple, in a largish storage space, the finishing touches were being given to the large, silver-plated Nandi, for the grand adikara nandi procession on Wednesday morning. A flex banner told people about the patron of the silver plates.

So much life inside the temple, so many people in devotion of their own.

Mylapore's coffee contests carry on. Cothas opens third outlet

By Baskar Seshadri

The coffee challenges continue in the heart of Mylapore. And they can be bitter, maybe chicory-ish.

Cothas opened its third outlet on East Mada Street, near Chandra Travels office recently. The launch was a grand one - Cothas obviously wanted every Mylaporean who passes by to know Cothas is here. Why? More later!

As cups of coffee were served to guests, the shop showcased all it offers. A cup of coffee costs Rs 25 and tea is priced at Rs 12. Cothas also makes special cookies of different varieties - all priced at Rs 15.

So why open an outlet when Cothas has one on South Mada Street, some 65 metres away?

The buzz is that though the older Cothas (one more exists in the Chittrakulam zone) has drawn a steadfast clientele, months ago, another coffee and snacks shop opened next door and the heat of the contest has risen.

Perhaps, Cothas' managers have not only smelt the coffee but also the competition and would like to drive people to the new place and decide on the fate of the second outlet.

Mylapore's coffee wars never end.
