VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

Mylapore has a new MLA. P. Venkataramanan of the TVK party.

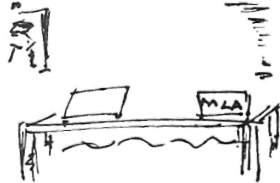

Hopefully, we will get to know where his office will be, and how we can reach out to him.

But before he sets up his work place, we as a community also have to draw plans to work with him.

But let us not make him a fixer. He has to be a facilitator of local, large projects and an auditor of these - when contractors, civic body teams and the rest execute them. Yes, he has to lend you his ears and open his doors to the public.

But let us not ask him to fix the dead streetlight, an overflowing drain, or the mess of dog poop. Local area issues are for elected councillors to deal with.

Not an MLA.
We got a hint of what the new MLA's top-of-the-mind issues to attend are in a 30-second byte he gave media folks after he was formally declared elected. Better public washrooms, strong security for women and tackling drug abuse.

Surely, Mylaporeans will want to add a few more issues that affect the larger community.

To ensure the system works, public-MLA collaboration is key. Transparency too. People have told us that while the previous MLA was accessible and was on the ground when called in, he ducked troubling issues posted on a WhatsApp channel.

Let us take the Chennai Metro project that will affect Mylapore for at least two more years. Did the MLA and the community bring stakeholders CMRL, GCC, Traffic Police and others to a few intense meetings to discuss issues that continue to hurt many people? Heavy traffic diverted through streets largely encroached on and till date, nothing done. Shelters at 'shifted' bus stations were provided ages after people got critical, though the Marina road doesn't have lighting at two key stops even now. Traffic management by police and contract staff has disappeared. Mylapore suffers.

There are other key issues that the MLA and the community should have debated and followed up. Re-development of Nageswara Rao Park is one. Improving the temples zone is another.

What is an MLA doing in the House when he attends the Assembly? We are never told. What are minutes of meetings he has with say, CMDA, GCC, Metrowater, Urban Habitat Board; we hardly get to know in the public space.

People need to work out ways to make the new MLA be transparent, put out key info on larger issues and have audits. Online and offline petition boxes and WhatsApp channels are lollipops.

Potted plants 'take over' sidewalks, street space

On Abiramapuram 4th Street, some households have taken over not only the sidewalks by having potted plants but they have 'covered' nearly one fourth of the narrow road with potted plants, leaving no space for motorists to navigate, much less park their vehicles

Tributes to Meena Aunty

● I studied at KRMMC between 2006 and 2009, and Meena Aunty (that's how all of us across her institutions addressed her) is one of those people you simply don't forget.

She was there for everything. She actually attended department events, cultural programmes, prize distribution events. And she would know the details: who performed, what the theme was, how it went. That deep, resonant voice was unmistakable. As cultural secretary, I had the privilege of visiting her at home, a palace quite literally, on her birthday to greet her.

She was warm, unhurried and always happy to meet students.

Rest in peace, Meena Aunty.

- Sharanya Iyer

● Dr Meena Muthiah had a great vision to promote the arts and set up a division to teach Tanjore painting. I had the pleasure of meeting her when the famed artist M. F. Hussain graced an event at the school. She had a great vision for education and also set up a college in Gandhinagar, Adyar

- Kamla Ravikumar

● Dr.Meena Muthiah, fondly called Meena Aunty, was the greatest influencer, especially for the teaching fraternity. Her enthusiasm to make teaching an enriching experience for the students motivated us, her staff to give our best to the children. She was a remarkable educationist and a gracious human being. She has touched the lives of many.

- Jayanthi Vibhu

TVK's smart move

It was a smart strategy by TVK to have chosen a Brahmin candidate to contest in Mylapore. He holds the treasurer's post in TVK.

- Chandrika Sriram

Water cans; some useful notes

The government of Tamil Nadu's Food Safety Department has issued a warning. To prevent contamination, do not reuse water cans more than 30 times. Repeated cleaning of the internal space of the most popular 20 litre cans is a hi-tech job. There is always a risk of potential contamination due to improper cleaning.

Also, avoid placing even empty cans in direct sunlight.

- Harish Chandran

MYLAPORE REWIND

This column carries excerpts from Mylapore Times, 1996 onwards. This week, we focus on November 1996.

Recognition for theatre artiste

S. V. Sankaran (Nov.30, 1996)

S. V. Sankaran of R K Mutt Road, a renowned name in the Tamil stage world, received the Mylapore Academy-ITC Academy Award at a function held at the Narada Gana Sabha recently. Brother of S. V. Venkatraman and uncle of S. Ve. Sekhar, Sankaran started his career at age 14, in 1949, when he joined Triplicane Fine Arts. He later moved to Cho's Viveka Fine Arts as a stage manager, where he served for 40 years. He was also an assistant director and prompter. Since he knew the dialogues of all the characters, he would often be called to fill in for absent actors. For Cho's play, Mohammad Bin Tughlaq, he had played eight different characters on different occasions. Sankaran said, "For the play Why Not, a character had to sit among the audience and keep calling out, "Why Not?" After a few times, a policeman came to take him away, misinterpreting his planned interruption. The secretary had to step in to save the character, he reminisced.

Union Minister S. R. Balasubramanyam honouring S. V. Sankaran

Viveks steps into footwear biz -

opens Reebok showroom (Nov.16, 1996)

Viveks has opened an exclusive Reebok showroom. Krish Srikanth opened the new store for Viveks at R A Puram, near Park Sheraton hotel. On sale are special shoes for basketball, aerobics, indoor sports, tennis and, of course, cricket. Ganesh, the outlet's manager, said that there are shoes for seniors and kids, and for casual use.

Walkers Assn. team has plans for Nageswara Rao Park (Nov. 2, 1996)

The new office bearers of the Nageswara Rao Park Walkers' Association have drawn a plan to improve amenities at the park. The committee's first meeting was held at the Cosmopolitan Club recently. Asking the city civic body to relay portions of the walkers' path features in the agenda. A resolution was passed to add more park benches, plant more trees and install sodium vapour lamps.

The members also intend to bring into place provision for action against miscreants in the park. K. J. Chandran is the president of the association, P. L. Chidambaram its vice president, and S. Sampath Kumar is the secretary. K. G. Parthasarathy is the treasurer.

Dance drama in Sanskrit (Nov. 2, 1996)

Mylapore-based Samskrita Ranga is organising a presentation of Dr. V. Raghavan's Anarkali, a dance drama in Sanskrit.

The show will be held at the Venkata auditorium of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan in Mylapore on November 2. It is open to all music and dance lovers.

The warm story that was shared that day was by Urbaser staff Sridevi - she is now attending a B.Com course. Urbaser team leader requested house helpers to segregate waste and then dump it in bins. The RWA members organised this event.

41098 votes were polled by the

DMK's Dha Velu, the previous MLA who contested again. 32328 votes were polled by the BJP's Dr Tamilisai Soundararajan.

Venkataramanan established a lead from the first round and this lead kept climbing even before lunchtime. 20 rounds of counting took place.

A treasurer of the TVK party, he resides in Pallavaram.

New MLA lists three issues to address

Three issues seem to top the agenda of the newly elected Mylapore MLA, P. Venkataramanan of the TVK party.

He shared them with the media after receiving the certificate declaring him as the MLA. He said these issues were highlighted when he met people, mostly women of the zone during his campaigning –

- Improve and increase washroom facilities, more for women in thickly inhabited zones
- Improve the security for women by improving CCTV coverage and adding more where needed
- Address the drug sales and abuse situation

Tamilisai says she will 'pay attention'

Dr Tamilisai Soundararajan, the BJP's candidate for Mylapore

in the recent elections, who lost, said she 'promises to pay attention to Mylapore' in the future.

Below is her note posted on her

Thanking all the voters of Mylapore who voted for me. I promise to pay attention to Mylapore constituency grievances and assure my level best to solve by taking it to the concerned authorities.

"I am staying here"

A chat with former Mylapore MLA, Dha Velu

Former Mylapore MLA Dha Velu who lost in the April 23, 2026 elections to the TN state assembly says the TVK wave swept away his chances, and that he did not expect it.

"Was it not there, I would have won by a bigger margin than in 2021," he said a day after the 2026 result.

Excerpts from an interview:

■ Three positives you see in your term as MLA

1. Fully satisfied that I could be of service to people and responded to the best of my capacity. It helped that I have resided here.
2. We oversaw the construction of a huge, new stormwater drain network.
3. We completed many projects under the Urban Habitat Board, providing housing to people who used to live in the old Slum Board blocks. 5000 more flats are in the offing.

■ Things you wish you had done better

1. Could not fully address the traffic issues in the heart of Mylapore where the ongoing Chennai Metro is a big disruptor.

More because its central work is in an area where the famous and popular Sri Kapali Temple and many large schools and a station are located; pushing vehicles into Mylapore's small streets created problems.

■ Tips for the new MLA

- He is not from the area and does not know ground realities; so he has to understand them all quickly.
- He will have to be accessible to people here

■ Next move

- My office will remain open - at the GCC complex in C. P. Ramaswamy Road, Alwarpet. In my capacity as a partyman I will continue to respond to people. I am very much here.

Pratibha Jain collaborates with top chef to write book on classic Rajasthani food

By Our Edit Team

Chef Sameer Gupta has quietly shaped Rajasthani cuisine for decades. He has trained young women from Marwari and royal families, curated grand destination weddings and organised cooking classes.

In his first published work titled 'Relishing Rajasthan', written in collaboration with award-winning author and Mylaporean, Pratibha Jain, ( known for her books - Cooking at Home with Pedatha and Sukham Ayu ) he presents the very best of Rajasthan's vegetarian cuisine.

The book's Chennai launch was held at Hotel Saveria, where guests were treated to Rajasthan music, dance and traditional arts and the food.

Drawing on years of experience in the royal kitchens of Udaipur, Jaipur and Patan, Gupta shares family recipes, royal delicacies and regional gems. Each dish, whether it's the smoky ker sangri or indulgent gatte ki sabzi or melt-in-the-mouth ghevar, reflects centuries of culinary wisdom shaped by the land, climate and spirit of the people of Rajasthan.

Prathiba Jain of Mylapore is known for her passion for preserving and documenting India's culinary heritage. She says she has brought the same depth of research and warmth to the new book.

Gupta of Jaipur has worked with the royal families of Udaipur, Jaipur and Patan. He has served in positions in the hotel industry and played a key role in launching popular restaurants and cafés in India and abroad.

Pickler's Bungalow: new pickleball courts inside vintage property

By Our Edit Team

Looking for a new sport to try out this summer? How about the rage-of-the-day activity called pickleball?

A state-of-the-art pickleball facility named Pickler's Bungalow' recently opened at the quiet Nagarathinam Colony, located off P. S. Siva Swami Salai. And it is now open for registrations.

The facility is the idea of two sports-minded partners, Vednath Kumar and Balaji Valluvan. Said Vednath, "We have come together to promote active lifestyles through accessible and engaging sports."

The duo had transformed the character of what is a Mylapore vintage property (said to be 120 years old) into a well-designed, greenery-filled sports arena, just off busy streets.

Pickler's Bungalow features three pickleball courts, catering to both beginners and seasoned players. They are set against the old bungalow, built by Vednath's ancestors, four generations ago.

Says Vednath, "We plan to set up a café here, blending sport, leisure, and heritage into a unique experience."

The facility includes a dedicated wash area, separate changing rooms for men and women, and ample parking space.

Operating hours are designed to suit all schedules, with the courts open from as early as 5 a.m. until midnight. Bookings are currently available through the Turf Town App, so people can reserve their slots in advance. Spot bookings are also offered.

Coaching programs for all age groups are expected to begin soon, along with membership packages.

For bookings, contact: Vednath - 9445451147 / Balaji - 9787973729

MRC Nagar community serves coolers to staff this summer

By Our Edit Team

Charity begins at home. The community which resides at the sprawling Jains Sagarika apartments in MRC Nagar is ensuring that its staff have some relief as summer sizzles this season.

Buttermilk is provided to staff, drivers and hosehelps.

This is not new. Priya Ramkumar here said that they have done this for nearly eight years during the months of April and May.

The idea came from resident Kalpana Krishnakumar.

It started small and expanded as residents joined the voluntary distribution group.

"Now, it is standard practice to prepare and distribute buttermilk. Nearly three to four litres of the drink is prepared and given," said Priya.

Now and then, residents offer ice-cream, juices, tender coconut or slices of water melon.

"Delivery agents too are given the drink or quencher if they come by on work when the distribution is on," said Priya.

KODAI NATAKA VIZHA

The plays were so-so.
Thank you for the a/c

By Our Edit Team

The TAG- MFAC sabha hall was packed, a few seats in the distant gallery alone vacant. The air conditioners showed 22 degrees. Outside it must have been 32 but 'feeling like 35 degrees'. And before the curtain went up, the host said this was Theatre Marina's 22nd play; a good record.

There seemed to be much expectancy that Saturday, unlike other days of the 12-plays-long annual Kodai Nataka Vizha of Kartik Fine Arts.

The title of the play, written by Bombay Gnanam and directed by Latha Venkat lent much interest too - 'Seyyadha Kolai'.

In the front rows, were many fans, friends and wellwishers of the artistes on stage that evening and of the theatre group.

In 10 minutes you got the hint which way the story would go. But the acts just did not get you. Did not jell. The Madras bashai character earned some laughs and cheers.

And less than 37 minutes of the play, interval was announced.

Theatrix Stage Cretors' 'Mazhaiyil oor Iravu' showed promise and interest. Some more rehearsals and tightness should get it invites to more shows.

The plays in the 2026 edition of the fest continued to get bogged down in the 'stand and deliver dialogues' linear style; so so worn out now. Do the much-used sets ( cannot blame drama groups who cannot pay tall bills for brand new curtains) dictate their acts or must we blame the line of mikes in front of them?

We hardly saw props, intelligently used, in these plays, which could be characters too.

What we did see was this new-found attempt to use visual projections on a screen - to replace sets. It worked in some cases. Particularly in one phase for the play 'Veera'. The 3D effect worked.

Amateur Tamil theatre, which sabhas patronise round the year, does not seem to be going far. The Vizha is the gauge for its condition.

Rasikas though continue to pack into the Vizha venue ( two this year), thanks to decent air-conditioning in the agni season.
