VINCENT's JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

I enjoyed being at a recent event held at the TAG-Dakshinamurthy in the P. S. School campus in Mylapore recently. These are the kind of events where people tell stories. Some are brief and some are long - and both matter to me.

The event marked the golden jubilee of the 1975 SSLC batch alumni of this school. The school has encouraged the practice of getting its alumni to curate an event that marks 25 or 50 years of the group's goodbye year as school students.

The 1975 group came up with a great idea - to highlight all the students who had excelled in sports at various levels.

As one of the key players of the event told me - We didn't want to just have a meeting, talk and joke, have tiffin and go home.

So this group worked on one theme in different ways - it listed all the sports stars of the school, it made a sincere effort to trace all the people on that list, it accessed newspapers, magazines and the rest to collate details and photos and it brought out a lovely souvenir, the best of its kind I have seen and read in some years.

This theme and the ideas around it popped up when the 1975 'old boys' began to connect online during the pandemic years. Putting it together took time but they kept at it and the effort shows in each and every page in this smart souvenir.

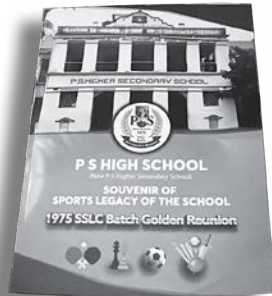

At the event, the man who sat next to me sported a white Tee which had the legend - Mylapore Football Club. We got talking. Mylaporean R. Ravichandran was a football player of the school. He went on to play for the Madras University's football team and then, for the state team. He going a job in FCI in the sports quota and after retirement, has been, with others, promoting the Mylapore Football Club which once boasted of some excellent players who resided in the Mylapore zone and which made a mark in the city football league then, but now relies on players from across the city.

That evening, I also heard people mentioning Mandaveli Sports Club which was once the hub of a variety of indoor sports - table tennis, chess, carrom. Teens of Mylapore not only played and practiced here but some went on to win medals and cups. A few were P. S. School students and some of them were present at the 1975 batch alumni function.

I appreciate this souvenir and the people who edited and published it. And I would request schools and colleges, clubs and associations to publish souvenirs which record histories - of the community or of a nagar, of local sport, of campus life. This valuable content can then be posted online.

And it can grow.

Interesting lives and outstanding people - they and their stories must be documented

Errors in street name boards

Chennai Corporation does not seem to take extra care when it comes to the spelling of street / road names, in Tamil and in English. A case in point - Nattu Veeratchi Street in Mylapore. The Tamil version was wrongly written. However, when I highlighted the error in this street name board in the Mylapore MLA's social media community group, a correction was made quickly. We appreciate this reaction. However, corrections must be made in the board for Karaneeswarar Koil 2nd Lane, Mylapore. The spellings in Tamil and English are wrong.

No to fancy ideas for Nageswara Rao Park

Nageswara Rao Park is a green oasis of Mylapore and Alwarpet and is frequented by hundreds of people for its green space and long walkways. It is now undergoing a makeover - but we notice that some trees have been felled perhaps to make space for ornamental plants and stormwater drains and for other facilities planned in the new design for this park. But why must we have facilities for food and entertainment in a park?

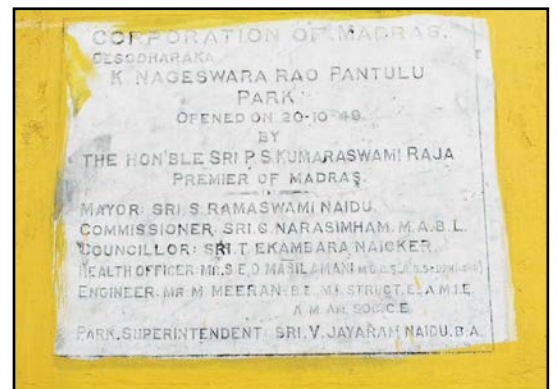

Cannot we preserve a large, green patch like this park without making it a commercial venture?

- Sripriya

Info nuggets on Nageswara Rao Park

The correct date of formal inauguration of Nageswara Rao Park is October 20, 1949 and not October 20, 1940 as may be seen from the details on the plaques seen on the gate of this park.

The number '9' of 1949 on the plaque has been erroneously read as '0' by many people who wrote on the subject probably because either the number was not properly engraved or it got smudged over the years.

I am certain that the year could not have been 1940 for the following reasons:

1. 1940 was a 'war year' and a year long before Independence; the inauguration of the park could not have taken place with a chief minister.

2. Late P. S. Kumaraswami Raja, who inaugurated the park, was premier of Madras Presidency between April 6, 1949 and January 20, 1950.

3. As a boy, I had witnessed the filling operations of arathakuttai by the men of the then Madras Corporation (MC) during the 1940s. They dumped garbage and soil to fill up the kuttai.

Changing face of R. K. Mutt Road

The section of R. K. Mutt Road off the tank of Sri Kapali Temple has changed starkly since the time work on the Chennai Metro project began at Luz Circle. Shopping buzz has come down and small eateries / hawkers are running their business alongside the now defunct MTC bus stops.

Obituary

A key person associated with the once-popular but now demolished Thaneer Thurai Market, Mylapore, R. Rajendran, passed away on Nov.24. He was 63 years old and was a resident of Mandaveli.

Rajendran was the son of the late S. Radhakrishnan, who was a major partner and founder of the privately-owned and managed market located off Royapettah High Road (near Sri Anjaneya Temple) where a residential high-rise building stands today.

The market was Mylapore's favourite shopping destination for vegetables and fruits and is a name that is remembered by old-timers even today.

Rajendran started young alongside his father, helping in channeling the wholesale supplies from Kotwal Chawadi in George Town and later, from the Koyambedu Market and in managing the many shops his father owned here. He managed the cleaning, packing and despatch of supplies to the city's top caterers and hotels. He was at this post for some 40 years.

After the market closed down, Rajendran managed the business from his residence. The city's topline caterers like Mountbatten Mani Iyer and Pattappa were his clients.

He is survived by his wife Lalitha, sons Suresh Kumar and Karthik; daughters-in-law Vijayalakshmi and Sharmila and their families.

The family's residence is at No. 8/10, Norton 1st Street, Mandaveli, Chennai – 600028.

Mylapore Fund issue: depositors hold public demo on Mada Street

By Our Edit Team

Over 200 people who are depositors of the Mylapore Hindu Permanent Fund and who say they have been defrauded by the nidhi company, staged a street meeting on November 25, morning. Members of the CPI (M) party lent their support to this action.

This meet was organised by Mylapore Fund Aggrieved Depositors Assn., based in Kottur.

The community here made two demands - they want the state police (EOW department) to work faster on processing the case and filing a charge sheet.

They also ask the state government to direct its agencies to trace the properties of the Fund's promoters and its director, Devanathan Yadav who is back in jail after he surrendered recently, to confiscate them, sell them and share the money gained among all affected depositors.

Man murdered in Abiramapuram. Arrests made

By Baskar Seshadri

24-year-old Mouli, a resident of Visalakshi Gardens was murdered by a gang in Abiramapuram area on November 20.

Police suspected four youths to be behind the murder; three were arrested last weekend, with one of them shot in the leg and arrested by local police after they spotted the suspect fleeing near a MRTS station in Adyar area.

Enmity due to personal relationships seems to have triggered the crime. On Monday, the gang, on spotting Mouli, chased and cornered him and attacked him fatally; he died near Mandaveli MRTS station.

Abiramapuram police are handling this case.

Mylapore Visuals

On the photo, she notes - In the bustling street market, two elderly women were deeply engaged in bargaining with a small vendor, hoping to get the best price for their toys and trinkets. As they debated, the vendor's face revealed a quiet struggle—his eyes distant, weighed down by thoughts of his family's uncertain future. Behind the colorful balloons and toys, a story of resilience and hope unfolded, where every rupee mattered and every interaction carried the weight of dreams yet to be fulfilled.

Shruthi posts her visuals on Instagram - at @shruthi_photographs. She is a resident of Brindavan Street.

THREE ARCHITECTURE FIRMS OPEN DOORS TO PUBLIC, STUDENTS. NOV.24 to 28

Chennai Architecture Foundation (CAF) is presenting Open Office Week; a group of architects who manage firms in the city will open their doors to people who wish to know more about architecture and its practice and to ask questions on issues that affect you - maybe on redesigning a 50-year old house or setting up a coffee bar. CAF says that the participating architecture offices are open for walk-ins from November 24 to 29, 3pm – 7pm. The firms in the Mylapore / Alwarpet / R. A. Puram areas which will keep its doors open to guests are : 1 studio DCode, 16/21, Cenotaph Road,

1st Street, Alwarpet, Chennai 18. 1 Studio Context Architects, 13, Kennedy First Street, Mylapore, Chennai 4 1 SKDO, No.11, 'Pelathope'. Vedanta Desigar Swami Street, Mylapore, Chennai 4. Said architect Anupama Dawson of studio DCode, “We wish to encourage people to learn more about the spaces and environment around them. For students, these visits offer inspiration, practical learning, and a clearer sense of what the profession looks like in practice.” Added senior architect Biju Kuriakose of CAF, “By allowing people to step inside without an appointment, these offices hope to create an open and welcoming atmosphere. “This openness helps people feel more connected to the places they live in and gives them a chance to engage with the architects in a relaxed, informal way.”

LOVE THY NEIGHBOUR

A group of Vidya Mandir students recently reached out to economically weak residents at festival time

By Our Edit Team

On Deepavali eve that went by, a group of students of Vidya Mandir did something the school had not done for a long time. Reached out to the less-privileged in the school's neighbourhood in Mylapore.

These students are members of the school's Interact Club. They are seniors of Vidya Madir. The Club plans and executes small projects throughout the year. In the past, Interact Club members collected money for specific projects and donated them. In October this year, the school suggested to the students that they could donate dry foodstuff to the needy on the eve of the Deepavali festival. Yuva Bharathi, a NGO was asked to facilitate this project. "We created an opportunity for our students to meet people who live difficult lives in their areas so that they come face to face with social realities," said school principal S. H. Kanchanamala Yuva Bharathi's R. Shivakumar spoke to seniors living in Lala Thottam, a colony located off R. K. Mutt Road, behind the Thirumayilai MRTS station and arranged for the visit. It was a rainy morning on the day of the visit, so community activist K. R. Jambunathan and Shivakumar arranged space in one house for the students and the residents of the area to meet. The students handed over the dry food-stuff and chatted with residents. Said school principal Kanchanamala , "When these students got back, one of them told me that the experience made her realise what it means to be privileged as they are." Around the same time, another batch of students from Vidya Mandir had visited a patasala on the city's outskirts and handed over books and stationery to the students in that campus. The school principal said that Vidya Mandir will continue encouraging similar projects as part of the Interact Club's activities.

The group that sings at pradosam at Sri Kapali Temple

By Our Edit Team

If you are a regular at Sri Kapaleeswarar Temple on pradosham day, you may have noticed a group singing the hymns of lord Shiva. Led by Sasikumar, this group says it has been following this practice for more than 22 years.

"Around 160 people come together to sing on lord Shiva every pradosam. People who visit the temple during that time, also join in. The group increases in number during sani pradosam, Maha Pradosam and Somavara Pradosam days", said Sasikumar.

"We start with the thevaram on Kapali - Mattita Punnai Ondru and go on with Thiruvagasam, Siva Puranam, Siva Vakiyam and end with Pradosham songs," added Sasikumar.

He said his guru Vishwanathan leads the group. "Most of us know the songs by-heart and for others, we distribute booklets. There are no practice sessions per se. People sing along with our group," added Sasikumar, who runs a building materials supplier shop in Mandaveli called Sri Guru Raghavendra Agencies.

Sasikumar and a few others sing Thevaram in the temple everyday between 6 and 7 in the morning. He lives on Periyapalli Street, Mandaveli.
